Amezcua

Bio Disc 2

The Next Level of Wellness +

When the Amezcua Bio Disc was introduced to the world in 2006, it heralded a revolution in the way we were able to redefine and harmonise the energy of water, greatly maximising its positive effect on the human body. Over the years that followed, numerous independent scientific tests verified the Bio Disc's ability to positively harmonise energy, while millions of satisfied customers from all over the world shared their own anecdotal evidence of the benefits of this innovative energy enhancer.

Today, representing the next level of wellness and the evolution of the world-renowned Bio Disc, the Amezcua Bio Disc 2 is set to again redefine the way in which we can harness and harmonise the energy of our drinking water.

Better, stronger, easier, and more effective, the Amezcua Bio Disc 2 is a new era in harmonised energy.

- Amezcua Bio Disc 2
- Amezcua Bio Disc 2 Family Pack

BETTER

Seven wave-form rings

The Amezcua Bio Disc 2 has a greatly enhanced energy field, attributed to the seven wave-form rings on the disc's surface. The seven ribbed rings speed up the biomolecular structure process of liquids poured over the disc, improving the biocompatibility of water molecules with your body more than ever before. The liquids are energised faster and more efficiently via the wave-form produced by the rings.

STRONGER

Heat and impact resistance

The Amezcua Bio Disc 2 has a higher resistance to heat and impact, which allows it to retain good physical strength properties even after prolonged exposure to unfavourable environmental conditions. The durability and usability have been greatly enhanced from that of its predecessor.

Bio Disc Shield

Each Amezcu Bio Disc 2 comes with a high-quality silicone rubber shield to protect it in everyday use. Combined with the disc's enhanced durability and impact resistance, this Amezcu accessory reduces the risk of potential breakages or damage without affecting the energy properties of the disc.

EASIER

Flat-base design

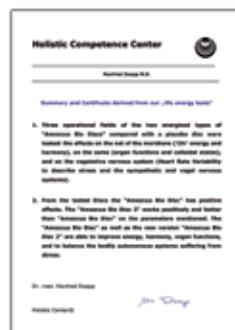

A new fusion moulding process creates a user-friendly flat-base design in the Amezcu Bio Disc 2, making it a reliable and stable base for your beverage containers. Such an improvement to the disc's functional design means that your drinks – whether in a container, glass, cup, bottle or even a jar – are able to stand on the disc more steadily than before.

The next level of wellness

The Amezcu Bio Disc 2 has been designed to further improve, balance and harmonise the energy of the human body through natural concepts created from a high-technological process.

How is this possible?

The Amezcu Bio Disc 2 is made of technically engineered natural minerals that have been structurally bonded in glass at a molecular level using high-heat fusion methods. Through this combination of minerals and fusion techniques, a positive energy field is created, which allows the Amezcu Bio Disc 2 to transfer its energy field to water and the human body, as has been certified through various testing and evaluation processes. Similar to the original Bio Disc but stronger in energy field, it is this transfer of energy that brings out the best in your water.

Tests conducted at the Holistic Competence Center by Dr med. Manfred Doepp have shown that the Amezcu Bio Disc 2 is even more effective than the original Amezcu Bio Disc.

Hydratious Sips

It is common sense that drinking water is vital, however, there is a way to enhance and improve the biocompatibility of water molecules. Enhancing water's biocompatibility means that you get more out of every sip while quenching your thirst. There is also a way for your drinking water to increase your energy and harmony levels at the same time. How? By drinking water that has been energised and enhanced by the Amezcu Bio Disc 2.

Therefore, Amezcu Bio Disc 2 is able to make your water more hydratious, harmonise your energy levels, and generally increase the advantages of drinking H₂O. The process is simple and seamlessly joins your usual routine; just place your glass or cup on the disc, or place the disc on top of your drink, and then consume your water as normal. Think of it as either a drink coaster, or a 'lid' for your water. Either way, it is working to energise and revitalise your water, and consequently, your body.

Various renowned institutions throughout the world have evaluated the properties and abilities of the Amezcu Bio Discs.^{} Among the evaluations and certifications is the verdict that the Amezcu Bio Discs can reduce water surface tension value. This in turn makes water more hydratious, which therefore improves the biocompatibility of water molecules with the body's cells. Basically, this means your body can absorb more of what it needs from your drinking water. Water treated with Amezcu Bio Discs also produces beautiful and perfectly shaped water crystals, an indication of water with high energy levels and good quality. The beautiful and good water crystals pass through body cell walls easier, enabling the body to deliver and absorb nutrients and minerals into its cells quickly. Further tests have indicated that the disc has a 'profound positive effect on individuals at energy level'.

* Tests conducted on some properties of the original Amezua Bio Disc also apply to the efficacy of the Amezua Bio Disc 2, as the two products share the same tested manufacturing qualities.

⁺ Tests conducted on the Amezcu Bio Disc 2 have shown a higher efficacy and effectiveness than results of the same tests conducted on the original Amezcu Bio Disc.

Beyond beverages

The Amezcu Bio Disc 2 energises more than your water. Wash your fruit and vegetables with water treated by the disc and they'll not only stay fresher for longer, but their taste will be truly enhanced. Your plants can benefit in their nutrient uptake from the soil through being energised with water treated by the Amezcu Bio Disc 2. Similarly, beauty creams and cosmetics can be energised to improve their absorption rate.

Double-blind, placebo-controlled tests have measured the efficacy of the Amezcu Bio Discs in balancing energy centres, revealing it is a very effective method of energising and balancing the human biofield, decreasing energy imbalances, and redistributing pooled energy. What's more, various test results also reveal that the Amezcu Bio Discs can efficiently increase the energy and harmony levels in those who use the disc or drink water treated with it.

For an improved absorption rate, place your containers of creams and cosmetics on top of the Amezcu Bio Disc 2.

Bio Light

Create Bio Photons with Bio Disc +

• Amezcu Bio Light

It is well known that plants use energy from sunlight to make food in the process of photosynthesis, but plants are not the only living things that have a complex relationship with, and need for, light. If a human being is deprived of light, growth and biological function is rendered impossible.

As the smallest physical units of light, biophotons are stored in, and used by, all biological organisms – including your body. The research on the purpose of these biophotons is proving more and more important in modern science, and they may very well be in control of virtually every biochemical reaction that occurs in your body – including supporting your body's ability to function.

Photons – the concept of the basic units of light developed by Albert Einstein – and their interaction within and on biological systems is a long established field of scientific study. Amezcu Bio Light is specifically designed to take advantage of the concept of biophotons. Shining the Amezcu Bio Light through the Amezcu Bio Disc 2 helps generate the biophotons to improve the performance of enhancing your energy levels and improving the taste of your foods and beverages.

Key Benefits

- Help the Amezcu Bio Disc 2 generate the biophotons to enhance your energy levels and improve the taste of your foods and beverages.
- Do not interfere with the behaviour of the Amezcu Bio Disc 2.

In a world of pollution and the hustle and bustle of the city, we can hardly refuse the electronic gadgets, vehicles and technological advancements that help us to 'get everything done quicker'. However, we can see when the hidden pollution emitted from those devices affect our body's function until our energy is drained to the point that we can eventually become ill. These are the realities of the life we live and world we live in.

E-Guard

Easy Protection From eSmog +

- Amezcua E-Guard
- Amezcua E-Guard Duo Pack

The Amezcua E-Guard is a unique wellness solution that provides protection for your body from the harmful effects of electrosmog exposure from mobile phones, computers, laptops, and televisions. Take them wherever you go by discreetly attaching them to your electronic devices. The Amezcua E-Guard will not only help those affected by electro-sensitivities, but also act as a preventative measure for your future protection.

Radiation consists of travelling energy in the form of waves or particles. It occurs naturally all around us and can be harmless in small doses, although through different types of radiation such as e-smog (electromagnetic radiation) the body can experience adverse effects. Amezcua E-Guard is a proven, functional and effective product that helps absorb problematic radiation frequencies, transforming them into frequencies that are more compatible and safer to your body. Additionally the Amezcua E-Guard has an energetic value that subtly transmits positive information into your body, further supporting your well-being.

Living in a Harmful Frequency Jungle

Today, most of us can hardly imagine a normal day without a mobile phone, a computer or television. According to a study released by the Council for Research Excellence, the average adult usually spends at least 8.5 hours a day in front of screens, including computers and televisions, which both produce a number of static electric fields and alternating electric and magnetic fields at various frequencies. In many countries, over half the population use mobile phones and the market is growing rapidly. CCS Insight, a major market research and analysis body focussing on mobile and wireless sectors reports, that more than 10 billion mobile phones have been sold globally since 1994, including five billion mobile subscriptions since the start of 2011. The unavoidable transmission masts and towers can already be found everywhere and the concern whether mobile phone radiation is dangerous to humans is no longer a myth. These convenient and useful devices have become fully integrated into our lives, where they definitely have their rightful place. Yet there also are problems involved with their usage.

The Invisible Danger of Electromagnetic Field Radiation

Electromagnetic fields (EMF) of all frequencies represent one of the most common and fastest growing environmental influences, about which anxiety and speculation are spreading. They are present everywhere in our environment but are invisible to the human eye and their effects are much worse than you think. All populations are now exposed to varying degrees of EMF, and the levels continue to increase as technology advances. Numerous scientific studies and experiments show that there are growing numbers of people who are sensitive to the electromagnetic field frequencies emitted by mobile radio-antennae, mobile phones, computers and television sets. Exposure to a consistent external frequency for more than a few minutes can cause our body's electrical functionality to be disrupted. It interferes with the body's natural healing process. The sensitive reactions display a variety of symptoms*, such as insomnia, difficulty in concentrating, anxiety, irritability, headaches, dizziness and similar responses.

*The indicated symptoms may vary based upon individual and may not be a direct result of exposure to electromagnetic fields.

Protect Yourself. Balance Your Energy. Reduce Your Stress.

Amidst the dynamics of the modern world, maintaining a healthy body requires a lot of time and attention. Taking reasonable precautions is an important day-to-day thought for us all. The Amezcue E-Guard acts as assistance to those already affected by harmful e-smog as well as providing a preventative measure for vital protection to the body. Combining two pioneering technologies in one single chip, the Amezcue E-Guard works well with the characteristics of quartz minerals that helps absorb various radiation patterns transforming these into frequencies that are more compatible with biological systems. An energetic value is additionally integrated into the Amezcue E-Guard to subtly transmit positive information maintaining the well-being of our body.

With its easy-to-use design, attaching the Amezcue E-Guard to your everyday electronic devices allows you to take preventative action by engaging, activating and supporting your own body's natural defenses and energy systems. Your protection goes wherever you go!

The Combination of Two Pioneering Energy Technologies

Human Firewall Technology uses quartz to absorb harmful frequencies and then the frequencies emit back in a neutralised wave form. This field interacts with the human body and transmits certain specific information.

Energetic Programming helps enhance the overall effect by having modelled Amezcue E-Guard with information containing an energy value that promotes your well-being.

Key Benefits*

- Protect yourself from the negative effects caused by electromagnetic radiation (e-smog).
- Activate and support your body's natural defences and energy systems.
- Feel more focussed and more energised.
- Receive positive informational effects and energy increases everytime your Amezcue E-Guard comes into contact with your skin.

*As confirmed by Dr med. Manfred Doepp of the Holistic Center of Energy Medicine, Germany.

Suggested Applications

- Description: Aluminium Chip with Laser Engravings
- Diameter: 25 mm
- Thickness: Seven (7) E-Guards per pack

Suggested Applications

- There are seven E-Guards in total in every Amezcue E-Guard pack. Due to the varying radiation emissions of different electronic devices, it is recommended to use:

AN ENERGETIC SOLUTION

As an active sportsperson, the desire to succeed must be matched by the ability to run the hard road, the energy to put in the long hours of training, and the perseverance to endure the strenuous demands of the sport; tournaments and competitions; early mornings and exhausting days; training and workouts. And that is all just to stay on top of the game. Then, the athlete is still expected to keep up their personal life and spend time with their families and friends.

In addition to the physical requirements of being an athlete, the considerations of well-being, proper diet and doing whatever one can to maintain a peak physical condition are all high on the list of priorities.

The life of a sportsperson is about striking a balance and having energy.

With this philosophy, Veloci-Ti has been created with the active sportsperson in mind.

THE SECRET BEHIND VELOCI-TI

Veloci-Ti is the range of energised titanium performance pendants that are designed for high-level athletes and active sportspeople, to assist performance energy and help achieve a natural best in any sport.

All Veloci-Ti pendants are energised through Informational Energy Imprinting (IEI) Technology, a cutting-edge technology that utilises the concept of energy waves and information frequency modulation by taking versatile, strong, lightweight titanium, imprinting this titanium with positive energy and then adding performance information to it through frequency modulation. The result is balanced and amplified energy levels and increased physical performance, endurance and agility. These positive effects may help improve various functions of the body to be better equipped to handle the stresses of sports.

The scientist behind IEI Technology is Dr med. Manfred Doepp who is a founding member of the Board of the German Society for Energy and Information Medicine e.V., Stuttgart and a specialist in Nuclear Medicine and Energy Medicine, as well as General Medicine. Dr Doepp is also a reviewer of the International Society on Systemics, Cybernetics and Informatics, as well as the International Society on Computer, Communication and Control Technologies. The InShape Toning Belt is a portable and revolutionary 3-in-1 abdominal toning belt which helps you achieve the abs you have always dreamed of!

The 3-in-1 Smart Toning Belt

Did you know that the EMS function mimics crunches and sit-ups which help strengthen your abdominal muscles?

EMS

InShape Toning Belt uses Electrical Muscular Stimulation (EMS) technology to create strong, deep, yet comfortable contractions in your muscles. When turned on, the belt will oscillate against your skin, delivering electronic impulses to stimulate the nerves and contract your abs; moving them in the same way as if you were performing crunches or sit-ups. What's more, the EMS function can activate muscles that are more difficult to reach with conventional exercise.

Did you know that the FIR function can burn hundreds of calories?

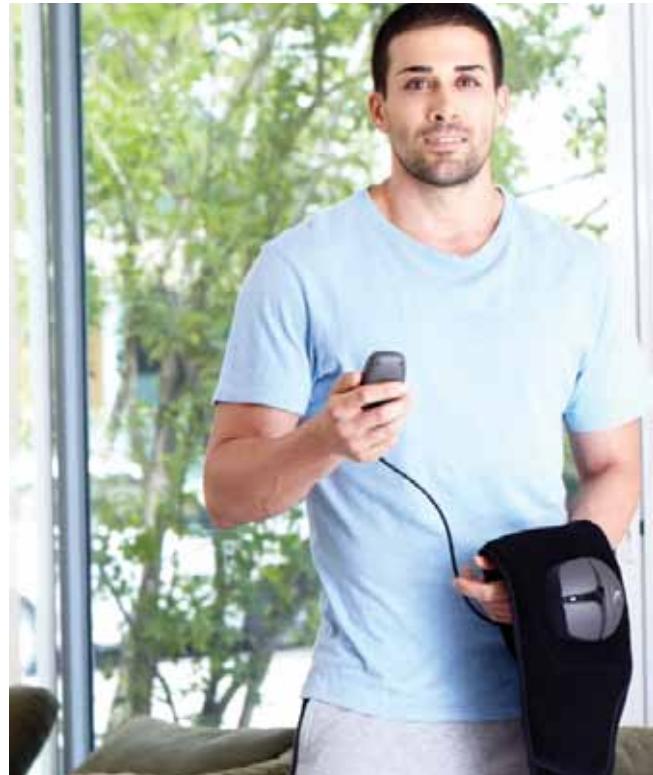

FIR

The InShape Toning Belt uses the advanced Far Infrared Radiation (FIR) heating system to deliver FIR waves deep into the body's tissue, raising the body temperature and consequently breaking bigger and lifeless water molecules into smaller clusters. This heating method also helps promote the absorption of nutrients, while flushing out and eliminating unwanted fat and toxic waste from the body through perspiration.

Did you know that the vibrating massage function can relax your body and mind, as well as boost your energy level?

VIB

The Vibrating Massage function use a massage method to stimulate nerves in your entire abdominal area. This forces your muscles to naturally contract and relax. With an adjustable 3-speed function to suit your personal preferences, InShape Toning Belt not only massages away pressure, stress and fatigue, but also burns calories, increasing your metabolism, blood circulation and lymphatic drainage – which in turn remove toxins faster. The vibrating massage function also increases serotonin levels, which in turn increases your overall energy levels.

Phytosonic™: The Ultrasound-Like Effect

InShape Toning Gel contains Phytosonic™, a complex active ingredient which carries the same function as ultrasound wave fat dissolving technology. Composed of three synergistic natural herbal extracts, including Glaucium flavum, Euglena gracilis and Vegetal caffeine, Phytosonic™ helps ultrasound waves penetrate deep into the fat layers under the skin stimulating the body's natural fat burning process. This process breaks down fat tissues into consumable energy, clears toxins, and reduces the amount of fat in the body. The results? Inches off your waistline, and a more defined and toned appearance!

A Clinical Study Supports the Efficacy of Phytosonic™

In vivo study conducted by Sederma laboratories with 27 female volunteers, approximately 35 years of age, applied a cream containing 3% Phytosonic™ twice daily to their bodies. Routine ultrasound measurements demonstrated a decrease of 55% triglyceride storage in mature adipocytes after nine days of application. In other words, Phytosonic™ significantly eliminates fat cells and decreases in thickness and volume of fat tissue. The test results also show that Phytosonic™ can restore the mitochondrial activity and increase cell energy by 28%.

Umayal
Celebrating Nature

Umayal Collection

The beauty of Nature is evident everywhere. If we only choose to look, we will find inspiration from the simplest things in the forests and the seas. A tree branch laden with bright berries, colourful corals from the deep blue ocean, the changing seasons – all these and more have proven to be the inspiration for thousands of artists and designers over the millenia.

Enamoured of the natural beauty she has seen on her travels around the world, Datin Umayal Eswaran was inspired to put together a collection that would reflect nature in all its splendour.

"We often take the beauty of nature for granted. The brightness of a blade of grass, the soft velvety touch of a rose petal, and the filigreed silhouette of the sea fan coral are all examples of the creativity nature displays. The greatest tribute we can pay Her is to attempt to emulate Her ingenuity. The Umayal Collection is our own ode to nature," says Datin Umayal.

"Combining my own love for our natural heritage with my appreciation for the fine things in life, this collection is designed to be simple yet elegant, and will add a distinctive touch to the wearer's sense of style. I know it will connect with the hearts and souls of discerning women around the world."

Inspired by the rustic beauty of tree branches and the intricate lacey designs of corals from the sea, the pieces in the Umayal Collection are artfully fashioned from silver and ornamented with delicate gemstones. Each piece is handmade with the utmost care by skilled craftsmen, ensuring its uniqueness and quality. Created to emulate nature at its best, the Umayal Collection is one that will appeal to those with a passion for nature.

As an executive member of RYTHM Foundation, Datin Umayal adheres to the fundamental philosophy of the Foundation – RYTHM, an acronym derived from the precept 'Raise Yourself To Help Mankind', based on the idea of being the change you want to see in the world. A portion of the earnings from the sale of the Umayal Collection will be donated to RYTHM Foundation, for further use in its charity work across the globe, giving help to those who need it most.

The peacock is the epitome of nature's true beauty with its richly coloured feathers of captivating design. The real grandeur of this majestic creature is truly set free through the flare of blue sapphires and topaz gems alongside the mysterious allure of the Chrysocolla stones; set against the striking shimmer of silver, these peacock feather-inspired necklace and earrings can adorn any outfit. Worn separately or together as a set, this remarkable collection exudes charm and delicacy perfect for any stunning look.

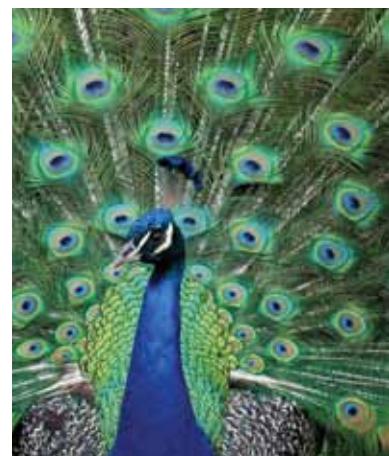

Pendant: Silver 925/-, Chrysocolla, blue Sapphire, blue Topaz, 17.27 g; Silver 925/- chain

Earrings: Silver 925/-, Chrysocolla, blue Sapphire, 12.76 g

Inspiration

The male peacock, known as the most majestic creature of the bird kingdom, parades its supreme beauty through the exhibitory fanning of its iridescent blue-green tail plumage, in hopes of charming a mate.

In Babylonia the peacock was believed to be the guardian of royalty, their images often found in decorative engravings on thrones.

Floret Empress Set

With an essence of gold hinting through a tapestry of rose, yellow and black-gold colours, the Floret Empress Set marries tradition with new-age fashion. Its beautifully intertwined design gives an air of strength, protecting the fragility of the inner empress, whilst emanating a celebration of new life with delicate blossoms placed on its surface. Its intricately woven design is reminiscent of a protective haven, the silk cocoon, shown through both the pendant and matching earrings. Sprinkled with orange sapphire gemstones, a sparkle emerges from this artistic arrangement, encompassing the very heart of the wearer from birth to new life.

Pendant: Silver 925/- with rose, yellow, black gold plating, orange Sapphire, 9.5 g; Silver 925/- with black gold plating chain

Earrings: Silver 925/- with rose, yellow, black gold plating, orange Sapphire, 11.5 g

Inspiration

As nature's protector from whatever the elements may bring, the silk cocoon represents a solid and safe haven for a life lived, ready for a deeper transformation. Being the very chamber of metamorphosis, the silk cocoon allows its inhabitant to shed its old life, bringing in new, symbolising the faith to embrace changes in one's life and merge with new found wisdom and joy.

Glacier Leaf Set

The beauty of the Glacier Leaf Set lies in its rare and refined appearance reminding us of the eternal richness of Mother Nature, the giver of all life. Symbolising happiness, strength and protection, these beautifully delicate pieces can complement any look or outfit, leaving you with the choice of mixing and matching to your mood.

An intricate work of gleaming silver sets a stunning background for the blue sapphire gemstones intertwined with a splash of rose gold. Celebrate your love for the essence of nature and life.

Pendant: Silver 925/-, rose gold plating, blue Sapphire, 9.8 g; Silver 925/- chain

Earrings: Silver 925/-, rose gold plating, blue Sapphire, 8.5 g

Inspiration

The unique shape of the Glacier leaf gives it a delicate beauty that can be compared to no other. This intricately designed leaf consists of a vast network of veins supplying water, nutrients and food to other parts of the plant, essential for its survival. The leaf also helps the plant absorb vital light from its surroundings, in the form of photosynthesis, allowing the plant to create new and healthful energy.

As energy flows through the Glacier leaf's veins, it connects each part of the plant to each other, bearing a sense of peace and happiness and restoring Mother Nature's will.

Viola Coral Set

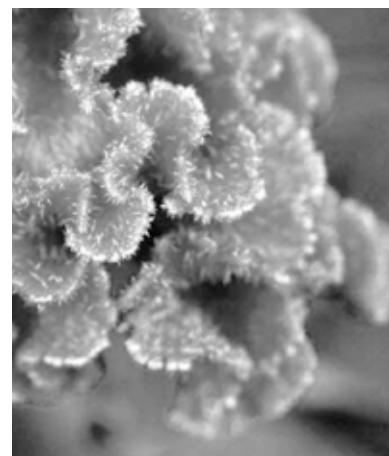

With its shapely and textured curves, the Viola Coral Set portrays honour and esteemed accolade to one of the most revered creatures in the marine world, the mushroom coral. Representing the strength and extravagance of the mushroom coral, the Viola Coral Set fuses the vivaciousness of the purple Amethyst with a shimmering silver backdrop, revealing a harmonious unity between the seascape and its vast sea life. Let this masterpiece of the ocean bring you into a world of unique elegance.

Pendant: Silver 925/-, Amethyst, 14.7 g; Complimentary black cloth chain

Earrings: Silver 925/-, Amethyst, 9.2 g

Inspiration

The depth of the ocean and the beauty of its treasures is seemingly endless. The spectacular mushroom corals, known for their extravagant fantasia of colours and sparkle, signify strength, dignity and perseverance due to their tenacious nature and coral-reef building abilities. Leaders of a strong foundation, these exceptional creatures not only create a breath-taking seascape, but also provide a maze of protection to the mysterious sea life that resides in the depths of the ocean.

Rowan Set

The Rowan Set is inspired by the mystical appeal of the rowan tree. Handcrafted from sterling silver, the set comprises a pendant, ring and a pair of earrings. Each piece is fashioned to look like a silver branch, adorned with an oval ruby and a faceted garnet, while the pendant also features a freshwater button pearl. Given an anti-tarnish coat to preserve its delicate beauty, this set has a regal elegance worthy of a princess.

Pendant: Silver 925/-, Ruby, Garnet, freshwater Pearl, 13.17 g; Silver 925/- chain

Ring: Silver 925/-, Ruby, Garnet, 9.55 g

Earrings: Silver 925/-, Ruby, Garnet, 7.26 g

Inspiration

Considered the mother of all trees and plants, the graceful rowan tree represents strength and protection; the ancient druids valued its sturdy wood, and the tree's sprigs and brilliant red berries were woven into necklaces and used as protective charms in times past.

Nautilus Set

The transcendent beauty of the nautilus shell is reflected in the charismatic design of the Nautilus Set, which is set off by the sublime green of the peridot. The contrasting textures of polished and raw peridots combine to give the pieces a depth that's exciting, yet elegant. The set offers versatility through a spectacular pendant that can be worn as a brooch; both options match perfectly with a pair of earrings that look equally stunning worn on their own.

Pendant: Silver 925/-, faceted and raw Peridots, 8.0 g; Complimentary black cloth chain

Earrings: Silver 925/-, raw Peridots, 7.6 g

Inspiration

As far back as the ancient Greeks, the shell of the chambered nautilus has been a symbol of perfection. Its perfect spiral geometry and pearlescent sheen have captivated artists and designers through the ages, inspiring them to reproduce striking likenesses of this almost-mystical cephalopod.

Ice Queen Set

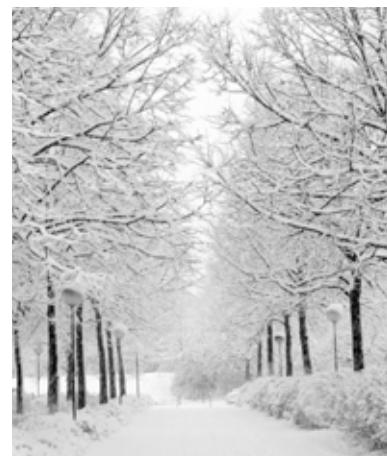

The splendour of shimmering snow-laden trees in winter is the inspiration for the Ice Queen Set. The delicate beauty of stark, crystalline branches is captured in polished silver and accentuated with stunning freshwater pearls that create a perfect focal point for each piece. Evoke the beauty of a winter's day with the exquisite icy magnificence of the pendant and earrings in this matchless set.

Pendant: Silver 925/-, freshwater Pearls, 11.2 g; Silver 925/- chain

Earrings: Silver 925/-, freshwater Pearls, 6.8 g

Inspiration

There are those who believe that winter is the season of renewal – a time when the earth goes to sleep and heals itself. And yet, though the land is gripped with cold, there is still a timeless beauty to be seen: in the shimmer of fresh snow in sunlight, the glitter of icicles on the end of a branch, or the delicate tracks upon the landscape of creatures born to revel in a winter wonderland.

Sylvan Set

The Sylvan Set embodies a love for the forest with its whimsical loops and swirls that are evocative of leafy vines trailing down from trees. This two-piece set, consisting of a pendant and earrings, is cleverly crafted from silver to give the pieces a vintage look. Accentuating the pieces are gemstones of blue topaz and raw apatite, their luminous colour reflecting clear blue skies. The refined grace of the set can complement a variety of outfits and moods.

Pendant: Silver 925/-, blue Topaz, raw Apatite, 12.68 g; Silver 925/- chain

Earrings: Silver 925/-, blue Topaz, raw Apatite, 11.62 g

Inspiration

In mythology, Sylvans were the spiritual guardians of the forest, keeping watch over the woods and protecting it with their lives. Some even made their homes within the trees they were sworn to protect. Their love for all living creatures, as well as the plants and trees around them, helped keep the forests safe.

Misty Pendant

The Misty Pendant marries the elegance of the sea fan with the mystique of smoky quartz, producing a captivating piece that will catch the eye of the beholder. The crowning glory of the pendant is a faceted, pear-shaped gem, whose muted hues evoke images of morning mist blanketing the forest. Its versatility allows you to wear it as a pendant by night and a brooch by day.

*Pendant: Silver 925/-, smoky Quartz, 9.69 g;
Complimentary black cloth chain*

Inspiration

Mist is a naturally occurring phenomenon of small water droplets becoming suspended in the air. In some legends, mist could be manipulated and used by the druids as a protective veil, enabling them to hide from their foes. Mist was also considered by some people as a portal to the world of visions and dreams.

BERNHARD H. MAYER
DEPUIS 1871

The Spirit Of A Family Tradition

In 1871, when the small town of Pforzheim or Goldstadt (City of Gold) was just seeing its humble beginnings as the centre of Germany's jewellery and watchmaking industry, the Mayer family set up shop and began manufacturing and selling dies (tools for minting coins).

The independent family-owned business expanded into minting and soon they were producing collectible and commemorative coins from precious metals which were highly valued all over the world. The Mayer Mint GmbH Germany consequently became a key player in the numismatic field.

With the turn of the 19th century, embossed and engraved covers of quality pocket watches were becoming indispensable accessories to enthusiasts; a significant fashion and reputation statement that signified the owner's taste, wealth and family heritage.

Great grandfather Mayer took on the hobby of engraving watch covers, and it was this leisurely interest that later turned out to be the birth of a passion, style and a newly found tradition which laid the foundations for Bernhard H. Mayer® watches.

As time went by, watches became strongly associated with the Mayer business. When the family decided to acquire a watch production facility in Switzerland, it was only a matter of time before the Bernhard H. Mayer® brand would become recognised as a genuine manufacturer of Swiss watches.

The vision to enrich the eternal value of precious metals and gemstones and render high-quality watches and jewellery for discerning customers steadily built the Bernhard H. Mayer® name in the global luxury goods.

After 140 years of ceaseless production and five generations of Mayer watch making, the rich heritage of more than a century of unrivalled knowledge, experience and skill in every aspect of the numismatic, jewellery and watchmaking art continues.

Bridging past and future, Bernhard H. Mayer® master artisans remain faithful to the spirit of tradition that began in 1871 while embracing innovation with every new decade to guarantee that the legacy of excellence started by the Mayer forefathers will continue onto succeeding generations.

Manufacturing Excellence

By owning a Bernhard H. Mayer® premium item, one enters the circle of those who share the philosophy of excellence held by the Mayer family, and who wish to express this through objects worthy of such distinction.

The supremacy in which each jewellery piece or watch is handled – from the initial concept, to design and final production – reveals the utmost care, exacting skill, and meticulous attention to detail exerted by our master artisans to produce items of the highest standard and value.

This demanding approach brings together a rare combination of time-honoured techniques, advanced research, cutting-edge technology, and powerful technical resources – all in strict accordance with established industry standards and guidelines.

BERNHARD H. MAYER® TIMEPIECES

The prestige and reputation that Bernhard H. Mayer® has acquired amongst watch connoisseurs worldwide is not solely due to the resources of technical knowledge and exceptional skills contained in its horological workshops – the perfection of each timepiece stems from the consistency with which the Mayer family business has applied its philosophy of excellence ever since its foundation in 1871.

Offering an impressive collection of simple and complicated models designed with the look and functions appropriate for every style of dress or activity, a Bernhard H. Mayer® timepiece is a testimony of its owner's high standards in terms of reliability and aesthetics.

All Bernhard H. Mayer® watches are Swiss-made in accordance with Swiss standards of quality and assurance.

CLASSICS

To create a watch that is new but eternal, modern but timeless – such is the challenge and inspiration for our designers.

Defined by perfect proportions and refined simplicity with subtle details, Bernhard H. Mayer® classic timepieces withstand the passing of time with designs that will never go out of style.

Each wristwatch communicates an elegance as enduring as the precious movements they enclose.

200 Million Years of Natural Energy Captured in Fine Jewellery

Those involved in the study of crystals believe that crystals can assist in conducting and transferring energy to the user, and also contribute to an increase and balance in people's energy levels.

From the sacred tops of the highest mountains in the world, the Himalayan Crystal is credited with possessing the highest and most rare form of this energy-conducting ability. The ancient origins and delicate, laborious hand excavation of the Himalayan Crystal ensures it is forever cherished as an exceptional 'master' of the crystal family and saved for precious and romantic purposes.

According to literature by crystal experts, the Himalayan Crystal amplifies energy, possesses a high-energy vibration, and is much sought after by many crystal lovers as the most versatile 'well-being' crystal in the mineral kingdom.

Origin & Selection

The Himalayan Crystal is among the rarest and most treasured crystal on Earth, hailing from a region renowned for its natural offerings. Himalayan Crystals have been exposed to nature's elements for more than 200 million years, which enhance higher natural energy reserves over other crystals.

Each Himalayan Crystal is hand mined and individually selected from the peaks of the Himalayas in Nepal, 3,000 metres above sea level. The valuable crystals are carefully carried on a seven-day trek down dangerous mountain terrain. Such a loving but difficult endeavour of naturally gathering these crystals means they are among the rarest in the world, and their pristine origin results in the purest quartz crystal known to man.

Secret Crafting Technique

The Himalayan Crystal Collection™ is the first and only brand to capture the natural energy and pure beauty of these ancient quartz crystals. The climax of the 200 million-year-old crystal creation and the delicate crafting process is opulent, luxury jewellery creations that embrace 18 K white or yellow gold, diamonds and sterling silver 925/- with 5 micron rhodium plating.

The pieces of exquisite jewellery that comprise the Himalayan Crystal Collection™ have been meticulously and individually hand crafted; a process that demands many man hours by highly skilled jewellers. Achieving the mystique of a diamond appearing within the perfect crystal without damaging or scarring the glass-like surface, is an extremely delicate and difficult crafting technique. This technique is a tightly guarded secret and allows the precision inlay of precious stones and metals into the crystal.

Only the creators of the exclusive Himalayan Crystal Collection™ have mastered the technique.

Tri Angle Pendant

Optimise and Restore Your Body's Energy Equilibrium

The Earth is made up of many triangular energy grids; each triangle is isosceles in nature and presents two identical 51.51° angles. This specific angular degree is also the degree of the base angles of the mysterious energy-conducting Great Pyramids of Egypt.

The energy-enhancing Tri Angle Pendant replicates this exact triangular precision in the attempt to recreate and harness the natural energy of the Himalayan Crystal to its full potential. A highly specialised 'lens cut' could help optimise or restore the body's energy equilibrium.

Equally as beneficial and stylish for both ladies and gents, the Tri Angle Pendant is embraced by sterling silver with 5 micron rhodium plating, creating beautiful jewellery pieces with the natural properties of the Himalayan Crystal.

Set on a long silver chain with a delicate adjustable clasp, this intriguing Pendulum Pendant is made of rhodium-plated sterling silver, with the cone-shaped pendant housing refined Himalayan Crystals with 200 million years of natural energy captured inside. A circular band of sparkling zirconias gives the piece an opulent aesthetic. The Himalayan Crystals bring about a harmonised balance of energy, enhancing the wearer's body equilibrium and optimising well-being. The Pendulum Pendant also features an adjustable clasp, which allows creative freedom in wearing the pendant – it can be utilised as a loose necklace, a double-stranded choker, or even looped about the wrist in a multi-layered silver bracelet, with the pendant becoming a delicate charm.

COSTUME JEWELLERY NEEDS SPECIFIC CARE, JUST AS YOUR OTHER FINE JEWELLERY

Fine jewellery and fashion jewellery should not mix whether you are wearing them, cleaning them, or storing them. Therefore, never keep your real gold and costume jewellery together. Always store separately.

To avoid your costume jewellery from quickly tarnishing or becoming rusty or pitted due to moisture, keep them in a plastic bag. Wrap loosely inside the bag and store in boxes, drawers, or plastic containers.

Always use big containers to keep jewels; do not jumble them with smaller ones.

While cleaning your costume jewellery, do not immerse it in water or any cleaning solution. Doing so will cause a change in the colour of the stones and dissolve the material used to set the stones. Instead, use a damp, soft cloth to wipe the jewellery.

Never apply perfume, deodorant, oil, body lotion or hairspray while wearing the jewellery, as the chemicals will tarnish the plating on the jewellery. Spray the perfume or hairspray first and then wear the jewellery.

Avoid wearing jewellery when bathing, going to bed, swimming, or when exercising.

Do not bend or apply excessive pressure to delicate jewellery. Bracelets or necklaces should be stored in a flat manner with stones turned upward to prevent them from coming loose and to maintain the shape of the jewellery piece.

- “ Isn't it too late for me to go back to school? ”

Those who achieve the most in life are always learning. They are students of life, students of their mentors, students of their peers, and students of their experiences. Their 'cups are empty', always ready to learn. They seek to improve themselves at every turn. Following the concept of RYTHM, they strive to raise themselves in every way, for the benefit of themselves and those around them.

At the Swiss eLearning Institute, courses are designed for these types of people; both those who aspire to achieve and those who are already achieving. The thirst for learning and personal development lives in everyone, but is especially evident in networkers. Investing in your future goes beyond financial gain. Investing in your future is investing in yourself; enhancing your personal knowledge and continuing education.

The framework of the Swiss eLearning Institute is based on the concept of 'continuing education'; a post-secondary education programme that is set up to provide further enrichment, whether professionally or personally.

Where is the Swiss eLearning Institute based?

The Swiss eLearning Institute is located on an advanced web-based platform powered by Switzerland's leading global online business school.

Anybody can benefit from continuing education, but the informal and flexible nature of continuing education courses provides a particular advantage to those whose professions are constantly evolving, especially networkers. When we first develop ourselves, other aspects surrounding our lives improve also. A healthy mind leads to a healthy body, which leads to a healthy, wealthy life.

Yet, when do you have the time to go back to basics and build on your core skills? How can busy, determined networkers suddenly drop everything they're doing to attend school?

And after all, the power of network marketing is in its ability to be taught and duplicated, without a prerequisite of a university degree or a piece of paper that says 'diploma'. Yet, what is life if we are not learning?

This is where QNET has blended together the skills that make a successful networker, with the academic experts and leading professors at Switzerland's leading online university. The Swiss eLearning Institute recognises that a strictly structured, tightly framed environment like that of a traditional university or classroom setting is not the most suitable for the fast-paced, dynamic and progressive life and busy schedules of networkers. Unlike a normal classroom, eLearning offers a flexible and an informal educational environment tailor-made for professional development. The Swiss eLearning Institute offers well-developed courses, from beginner to advanced to niche, for the modern networker.

Improve yourself today and watch the results in your business. Invest in your own human capital, that of your own and of your team. Invest in your own future, and help improve those around you.

What makes a Networker

- Dynamic and progressive lifestyles
- Flexibility and adaptability to change
- A desire to make a difference
- Having wants to evolve and change one's life

What makes an eLearning Student

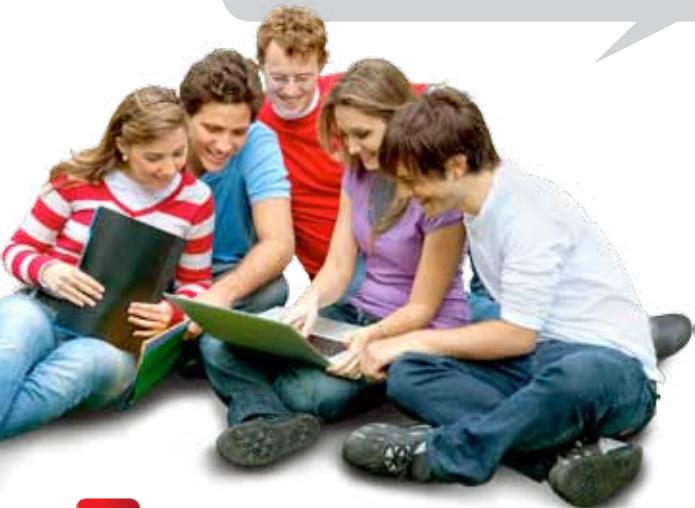

- Active and productive lifestyles
- A want to expand knowledge

- Seeking a way to improve oneself

NUTRITION

Scientifically researched and developed to provide wellness benefits, QNET health and nutrition products are carefully designed to replenish your body with many of the important nutritional elements that are lacking from a modern diet.

- Olé (1 x 500 ml)
- Mini Olé Triple Pack (3 x 100 ml)
- Olé + Mini Olé Triple Pack (1 x 500 ml + 3 x 100 ml)

Your Natural Bodyguard

Without a sufficiently performing immune system, your body is vulnerable to any sickness, disease or illness that comes its way. But while your immune system is busy protecting your body, what is protecting your immune system?

Olive leaf extract is widely considered the ultimate natural defender of your immune system, containing 400% greater antioxidant capacity than Vitamin C, and up to 40 times more polyphenolics than extra-virgin olive oil.

The Role of Herbal Alternatives in Modern Medicine

Of recent concern is that the widespread use, and possibly over use, of current antibiotics and prescription drugs – once hailed conventional medicine's most powerful weapons – is actually causing the targeted microbes to become more resilient, resulting in mutating illnesses that elude the effect of antibiotics.

The natural aspect of the medicinal potential in plants, such as the olive leaf, makes their use complementary and advantageous to a healthy lifestyle.

Antioxidants and the Fight Against Free Radicals

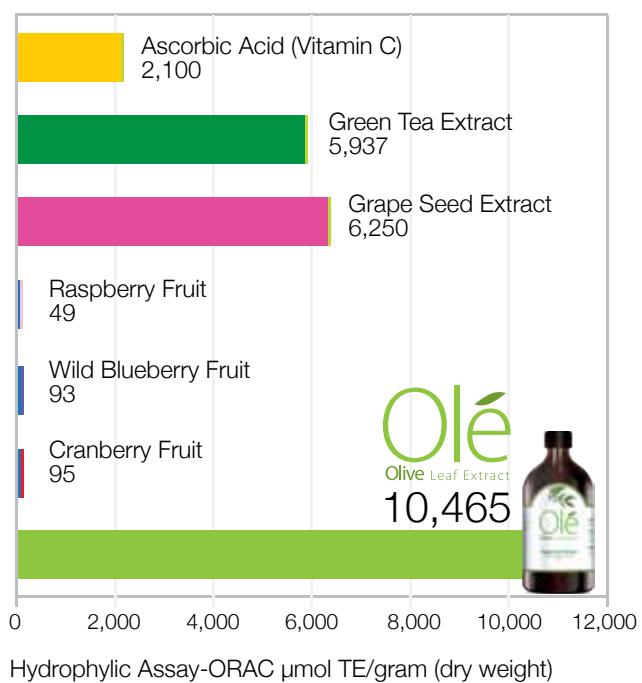

Free radicals are molecules that have lost one of their electrons, therefore rendering them unbalanced and highly reactive. These free radicals then cause damage to our bodies, called oxidative damage. On top of this, poor diet, excessive exposure to the sun, pollution, and substances such as alcohol and cigarettes also create free radicals that further damage cells.

Antioxidants prevent or slow the oxidative damage to our body and also repair cell damage. They also help prevent the signs of ageing by reducing cell degradation and by assisting in the prevention of a number of degenerative diseases.

Olive leaf extract has almost double the power of Green Tea Extract and Grape Seed Extract, which are both well known as popular sources of antioxidants. Further, fruits that are generally associated with being high in antioxidants, such as cranberry and raspberry, contain only a minute fraction of antioxidant power when compared to fresh-picked olive leaf extracts.

COMPARISONS WITH ANTIOXIDANT SUPPLEMENTS

Oxygen Radical Capacity (ORAC) µmol TE/gram

Polyphenolic Antioxidants and Flavonoids

Olive leaf extract contains a broad spectrum of polyphenolic antioxidants, which have very strong free radical-fighting properties. The main phenol in olive leaf extract, oleuropein, has been found to strengthen the immune system, and research shows it has a positive hypotensive effect in vivo (in body) and displays strong antioxidant activity. Combined with the many phenols in olive leaf extract are flavonoids, the most active being the antioxidant-strong rutin, catechin and luteolin.

Antimicrobials

Among the many phenols found in fresh-picked olive leaf extract is hydroxytyrosol, which is a catechol derivative of oleuropein. Both oleuropein and hydroxytyrosol are powerful antimicrobial agents against a variety of viruses, bacteria, yeasts and fungi. Hydroxytyrosol in particular is known for its wide spectrum of antimicrobial effects.

The Herxheimer Effect

Sometimes when people start taking cleansing supplements that fight free radicals and microbes, they may experience unwanted, but harmless short-term symptoms, such as fatigue, mild headaches, muscle or joint pain, or minor rashes. This is because the supplement is ‘cleansing’ the body and killing off unwanted pathological microbes. The body has begun its natural healing process to get rid of these toxins with the help of the supplement. It is when this load of toxins is too great for the body’s organs of elimination to handle, that people may experience these short-term, undesirable symptoms. This is called the ‘healing effect’, or the ‘Herkheimer Effect’.

Not everyone will experience the Herxheimer Effect, but for those who do, it is important to remember that it is completely normal and will not last long. These symptoms simply indicate that the supplement has begun its work and is effectively eliminating some of the causes of ill health.

Many health practitioners recommend drinking plenty of water in between doses of the supplement, especially in the first couple of weeks. This helps keep the lymphatic system and the kidneys functioning properly and makes them more capable of handling the excess toxins.

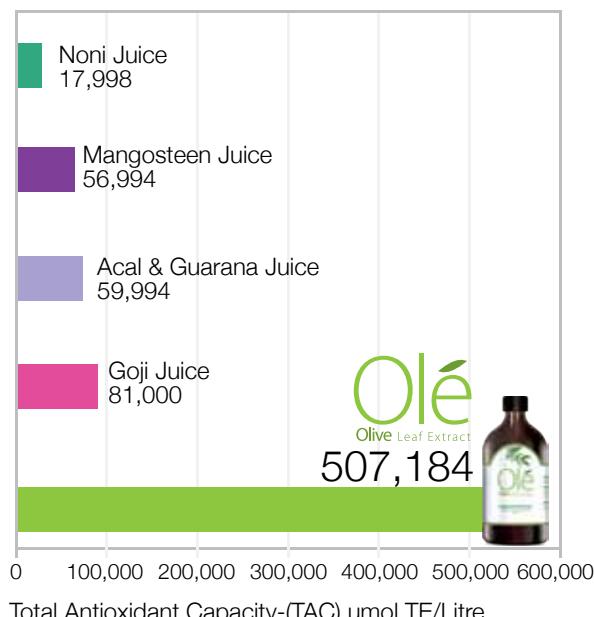

Why ‘Pick’ Olé Olive Leaf Extract?

The Total Antioxidant Capacity (TAC) of Olé is 500% greater than the leading antioxidant ‘super juice’.

- NutriSky® Single Pack (1 Box)
- NutriSky® Triple Pack (3 Boxes)

Vitality When You Need It

NutriSky® is a botanical beverage mix containing Swietenia macrophylla, a fruit with a high concentration of flavonoids and saponins. These two exceptional groups of nutrients blend together with a synergistic effect to enhance stamina and vitality by improving blood circulation, while also invigorating and fortifying the body.

The Origins of Swietenia Macrophylla

For more than 1,000 years, Swietenia macrophylla, a rare tropical fruit rich in flavonoids and saponins, has been consumed by natives for its healing and vitality properties. By the 1990s, a five-year research effort eventually succeeded in processing the fruit into a concentrated health food extract.

Swietenia macrophylla is the fruit of an evergreen tree belonging to the Melia family, and grows in tropical countries such as the Solomon Islands, where the climate is ideal and free from environmental pollution. Swietenia macrophylla also offers a valuable blend of natural proteins, vitamins, carbohydrates, enzymes, dietary fibres, fats, minerals, and various essential nutrients that can be readily assimilated by the human body to give remarkable benefits.

Key Benefits of Saponins

- Improves your vitality.
- Enhances your immune system.
- Strengthens the function of your heart.

Key Benefits of Flavonoids

- Improves blood circulation and stamina.
- Provides protection against oxidative and free-radical damage.
- Lowers fat build-up in the blood stream.

Promotes Blood Circulation and Boosts Your Vitality

Swietenia macrophylla is the most important ingredient in NutriSky®, which has beneficial effects due to saponins and flavonoids, acting in synergy to promote your vitality and stamina.

Saponins have demonstrated in vitro anti-elastase and anti-hyaluronidase activities, useful for the protection and treatment of vein insufficiency. Saponins inhibit the hyaluronidase activity in a non-competitive, dose-dependent way. The stimulating action of saponins on blood circulation is reinforced by the flavonoids. The main activity attributed to flavonoids is that they act as vein active agents, namely that they reduce the permeability and increase the resistance of blood capillaries. This results in a boost to your vitality.

Ingredients

Maltodextrin, Fructus Swietenia macrophyllae, Psyllium Husk, Vege Powder, Permitted Flavouring, Frutafit, Soluble Fibre, Lemon Juice Powder and Stevia (12 g per serving).

Suggested Applications

- ½-1 sachet when needed.
- Mix with 200 ml of water.
- Stir and serve.

- FibreFit Single Pack (1 Box)
- FibreFit Monthly Pack (3 Boxes)

An Essential Part of a Healthy Diet

There are two types of dietary fibre that are important for good health.

- Soluble fibre. This type of fibre dissolves in water to form a gel-like material. There is some evidence that soluble fibre may lessen heart disease risks by reducing the absorption of cholesterol into the bloodstream. You can find a percentage of soluble fibre in whole oats, peas, beans, apples, citrus fruits, carrots, barley and psyllium.
- Insoluble fibre. This type of fibre promotes the movement of material through your digestive system and increases stool bulk, so it can be of benefit to those who struggle with constipation or irregular stools. Whole-wheat flour, wheat bran, nuts and many vegetables are good source of insoluble fibre.

Health Benefits of a High-Fibre Diet

- Helps prevent constipation.
- Lowers your risk of digestive conditions.
- Helps lower blood cholesterol levels.
- Helps control blood sugar levels.
- Assists in weight management.

Are You Getting Enough Fibre?

How much fibre do you need? Through extensive research, scientists have determined that an average person should consume approximately 25-38 grams of fibre per day (or 10-13 grams per 1,000 calories), of which at least 5-10 grams should be soluble fibre. According to the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, eating fibre is important for efficient bowel function and can reduce symptoms of chronic constipation, haemorrhoids, and other digestive disorders such as diverticulosis. There is even some evidence to suggest that a high-fibre diet can reduce the risk of certain types of cancer, such as colon cancer.

Why Do We Need Protein?

Protein is vital for every cell and all fluids in our bodies. It serves as building blocks for muscles, cartilage, skin, blood, tissue production, and other cellular structures. Consuming and absorbing enough protein is essential to maintaining good health. Protein helps repair tissue and provides energy for the body to prevent us from fatigue, while helping the body fight against illness.

So how much protein do we need each day? It depends on our age, size, and activity level. The standard method used by nutritionists to estimate our minimum daily protein requirement is to multiply the body weight in kilogrammes by 0.8. So if your weight is 60 kilogrammes, you are required to take a minimum of 48 grammes of protein daily.

nutriplus™: Building Blocks for Your Body

Unfortunately, many protein sources such as red meat, cheese, eggs, and whole milk contain high levels of saturated fat, which is one of the major risk factors for heart disease and some types of cancer if taken in excess. The body cannot acquire enough protein and proper nutrition from a vegetarian diet to maintain good health, as some vegetarian dishes are often overcooked or reheated. This common practice destroys micro-nutrients and vitamins that produce antioxidants, which are good for overall health. Hence, we need to find the right protein that is a nutritious alternative to meats and dairy products.

Scientifically researched by Solae, the world leader in developing innovative soy-based technologies and ingredients, nutriplus™ is a great-tasting, high quality, 100% vegetarian source of protein from soy which serves as the building blocks to keep your body developing and functioning at an optimal level.

Why Soy Protein Isolate?

nutriplus™ is specifically formulated with high quality soy protein isolate, a complete protein with all the amino acids (which cannot be produced by the human body) essential for enhanced nutrition and good health. nutriplus™ is very low in saturated fat and cholesterol, making it an attractive alternative protein ingredient for meat- and dairy-based products.

The following table clearly illustrates why soy protein isolate is an excellent source of protein and is ideal for those who want to live a vegetarian and healthy lifestyle.

Type of Protein	Meats & Dairy Products	Soy Protein Isolate
Contains 9 Essential Amino Acids	Yes	Yes
Vitamins & Minerals	High	High
Saturated Fat	High	Low
Cholesterol	High	Low
Absorption & Digestion Rate	Slow	Quick

Did you know?

Soy Protein Isolate Reduces the Risk of Several Chronic Diseases

Soy protein isolate contains phytochemicals, which have strong antioxidant properties to prevent oxidative damage caused by free radicals to our DNA and cells. Researchers believe phytochemicals may help lower your risk of developing certain types of cancers, cardiovascular diseases, and osteoporosis.

Highest World Standard Protein Quality

The soy protein isolate formulated in nutriplus™ is an excellent vegetarian source of protein that provides an ideal balance between protein and nutrition. L-arginine: Energy and Stamina Booster

Did You Know?

L-arginine is an essential amino acid that has been utilised by athletes for over a decade to achieve optimum performance.

Referred as 'the magic bullet for the cardiovascular system' by Columbia University, L-arginine is one of the most potent ingredients in Inspire. When L-arginine enters the body, it is converted into a chemical compound called 'nitric oxide' which helps to relax and dilate blood vessels. The increased blood flow allows greater delivery of hormones, protein, carbohydrates and other nutrients to the muscles which aids in muscle growth.

Key Benefits

- Boosts energy and physical performance.
- Increases muscle mass and decreases fat.
- Increases blood flow to vital organs.

Tongkat Ali: Testosterone Booster

Did You Know?

Tonkat Ali literally means Ali's walking stick in Malay. Legend has it that Ali was the greatest and strongest warrior. This powerful herb is known to increase testosterone levels and energy levels, helping fight against physical exhaustion and mental fatigue.

Tongkat Ali, a rare plant found in Southeast Asian countries, has been used for generations as a source of male strength and vitality. Containing testosterone-enhancing properties, this natural plant is often used by bodybuilders to increase muscle mass and bone density. Several studies conducted in Malaysia discovered that Tongkat Ali contains Superoxide dismutase, an antioxidant enzyme that has the ability to inhibit a chain reaction of free radicals which are harmful to the body.

Key Benefits

- Increases testosterone level.
- Increases energy and muscle mass.
- Slows down the ageing process.

Saw Palmetto: Prostate Booster

Did You Know?

Saw palmetto has been used by millions of men to relieve the symptoms of Benign Prostate Hypertrophy (BPH) or 'enlarged prostate gland'.

Saw palmetto (Serenoa repens) is extracted from deep purple berries of the saw palmetto fan palm which grows naturally in the coastal regions of Southern United States and Southern California. It is best known for its use in reducing symptoms of an enlarged prostate (Benign Prostatic Hyperplasia) in older men. One of the most common symptoms is frequent nighttime urination. Saw palmetto contains a compound that inhibits the action of the enzyme that turns testosterone into dihydrotestosterone (DHT) which in turn is effective in preventing and treating prostate enlargement. Some studies indicated that saw palmetto has anabolic properties that aids muscle growth.

Key Benefits

- Relieves the symptoms of BPH.
- Strengthens the urinary organs.
- Increases lean muscle mass.

The Importance of Good Water

Everybody knows water is essential to our survival. The Earth needs it, and we need it. Water is all around us and in us, but still, most take it for granted. When it comes to the biological function of water for humans, its importance is critical.

As water makes up more than two thirds of human body weight, humans would die without it in a few days. Water also plays an important role in the mechanics of the body. In fact, every cell and organ function in our anatomy, and physiology depends on water to work efficiently and effectively.

Since water is such an important component to our physiology, it would make sense that the quality of water should be just as important as drinking eight glasses of water a day. Drinking water should always be clean and free of contaminants to ensure proper health and wellness.

Why Do We Need Water Filtration?

Water on the Earth's surface is substantially more prone to contaminants due to heavy industrial and environmental pollution. People who may be exposed to these inorganic contaminants can become sick or susceptible to liver damage, cancer and other long-term health conditions. Organic contaminants such as bacteria, disease-carrying microorganisms, rotten plants, and animal droppings are also likely to affect water sources. We have arguably, reached the point where all sources of our drinking water contain some level of contamination.

Some major contaminants that can be found in water today:

Toxic Metals (Lead, Mercury, Copper, etc.)

Toxic metals are also called inorganic contaminants. Many toxic metals have been linked to long-term health problems such as cancer and serious learning disabilities.

Microbiological (E. Coli, Enterobacter, Klebsiella, Citrobacter, etc.)

Biological contaminants are living organisms such as parasites, bacteria, viruses, cysts, and spores.

Petrochemicals (Herbicides, Pesticides, Detergents, VOC, Carcinogens, etc.)

Petroleum-based chemicals are also called 'organic' contaminants. Many have been linked to long-term health problems including many forms of cancer. Most have unknown long-term health effects.

With knowledge thus comes choice. A good filtration system installed in your home is one important way to proactively monitor and ensure the quality and safety of your drinking water. And although water filtration technology for households now prevalently exists, many people are unaware of the working principle behind the various systems. The first thing to keep in mind is that a filtration method cannot find its application in a single filtration stage. Only a good complete system can produce high-quality, safe drinking water.

Choosing the Right Water Filtration System

There are a number of filtration products that employ various filtration methods such as the Reverse Osmosis (RO) and Ultraviolet (UV) systems.

It is widely held that Ultrafiltration (UF) systems are perfect for household water filtration applications using pre-treated water and has advantages over RO or UV filtration.

Comparing Water Filtration Systems

	Ultrafiltration (UF)	Reverse Osmosis (RO)	Ultraviolet (UV)
Reduction of bacteria	Maximum reduction	Maximum reduction Breakdown of the membrane is possible	Medium reduction Bacteria can hide behind sediments or may only be paralysed
Possibility of recontamination	NO	YES (tank)	YES (water around the UV lamp)
Demineralisation	NO	YES	NO
Need for a pump	NO	YES	NO
Need for electricity	NO	YES	YES
High maintenance	NO	YES	YES

HomePure
Your Fountain of Life

The water filter can only be used with pre-filtered water from a water supply facility. The filter cannot be used with water from unsafe water sources such as rivers and wells. Use of a quality pre-filter is recommended to extend the shelf life of the cartridge.

9 Reasons

Why You Should Choose HomePure Water Filtration System

You can enjoy the special advantages of water filtration as well as good hygiene and wellness with a simple, single management of various filtration stages:

1 Gives you safe and clean water

The HomePure system provides clean drinking water.

2 Good minerals pass through, while contaminants are kept out

HomePure water filter produces water that is naturally balanced because it allows natural trace minerals to pass through filtration whilst ensuring certain contaminants are filtered out. The filter can absorb and remove 97% of chlorine; 99% of turbidity; 99% of the total 46 types of VOC (Volatile Organic Compounds) such as atrazine, carbofuran, lindane, simazine and toluene; as well as heavy metals (Hg, Pb, Cr, Fe, Al, Cu), herbicides, pesticides, and TTHM (Trihalomethane).

The heavy metals reduction is evaluated and supported by independent laboratory KEWVI (Korea).

3 Gives you good-tasting, odourless water

HomePure water is smoother, fresher, and better-tasting.

4 HomePure water is Pi-water

What is Pi-Water?

Well known especially in Japan, Pi-water is water that is very similar to living body water (i.e., water that constitutes a living body). It is water that can be found in all living bodies including humans, animals and plants.

Pi-water was discovered in 1964 by Dr Akihiro Yamashita during his study of botanical physiology. Dr Yamashita was trying to establish if hormone-like molecules were responsible for triggering flowering in plants, a phenomenon he and fellow scholars named as Florigen. He later found out that the change from bud to a flower was caused by 'body water', which contained a very small amount of Ferric Ferrous Salt (Fe₂Fe₃), the key element in controlling various functions of living bodies. After many studies and extensive research, Dr Yamashita succeeded in creating a bio-water with special properties that helped plants thrive well beyond normal expectations. He named this 'Pi-water'.

Pi-water is created by adding Fe₂Fe₃ to water through ceramics. When Fe₂Fe₃ is added to tap water, it suppresses the increase of excessive free radicals. This is what HomePure water filter does to provide you with Pi-water.

This claim has not been evaluated by NSF International, and is not supported by the NSF Certification of this product/component.

5 Easy installation and filter cartridge replacement

HomePure is a countertop filter that can be installed in seconds without the need for professional tools or plumbing. Its filter cartridge is also easy to change when it is due for replacement.

A smart indicator will show you when the filter lifetime has been reached through its:

- 1) Flow Metre, which counts water consumption (4,320 litres);
- 2) Timer, which counts the duration (12 months). Depending on whichever comes first, the smart indicator will signal when the filter cartridge has to be replaced.

6 User-friendly design

Sleek, modern and functionally designed, HomePure water filter is the perfect appliance for the modern kitchen. Its one-way stainless steel flexible pipe allows you to use the drinking water supply in a wider radius without moving your water filter, and also prevents bacteria or dust from coming back into the filter.

7 No electricity is needed

Unlike most Reverse Osmosis or Ultraviolet filtration systems, HomePure is a mechanical Ultrafiltration unit that does not need electricity, thus providing you clean water at minimal cost.

8 World-class quality/German engineering/Japanese technology/Korean-made

Using the reliability of Korean manufacturing, HomePure is made of world-class quality components and parts and uses a combination of advance German engineering plus Japanese technology.

9 7-stage filtration system

HomePure is a high-quality water filtration system that incorporates a mechanical seven-filter media Ultrafiltration (UF) system – meaning seven filter stages are combined into one single filter cartridge. The well-selected filter media and its specifications allow for a clean and safe filter performance that ensures water is filtered.

7-STAGE FILTRATION SYSTEM

1. Sediment pre-filter

Made of PE net and two-layered non-woven fabric material, the pre-filter effectively filters suspended solids such as rust residues, mud, and sand larger than 5 micron (5/1000 mm).

Function: Removes rust and sediments larger than 5 micron

2. Activated carbon block filter

The HomePure carbon block filter with developed technology provides greater chemical absorption and mechanical filtration. The HomePure activated carbon block also comprises a larger filter surface area, which is more efficient than a Granulated Activated Carbon (GAC) filter, thus providing better absorption of contaminants.

Function: Removes 97% of chlorine, 99% of turbidity, 99% of the total 46 types of VOC (Volatile Organic Compounds), TTHM (Trihalomethane $\leq 0.1 \text{ mg/L}$) and/or the other chemicals in Table 17 of NSF 53 (refer to User Manual)

3. Activated carbon ceramic balls

The activated carbon ceramic balls are made as special coating balls at a low-temperature process under very technical and delicate methods to keep all the benefits functioning inside. The balls are responsible for improving the taste of your water, promoting excellent absorption and deodorisation.

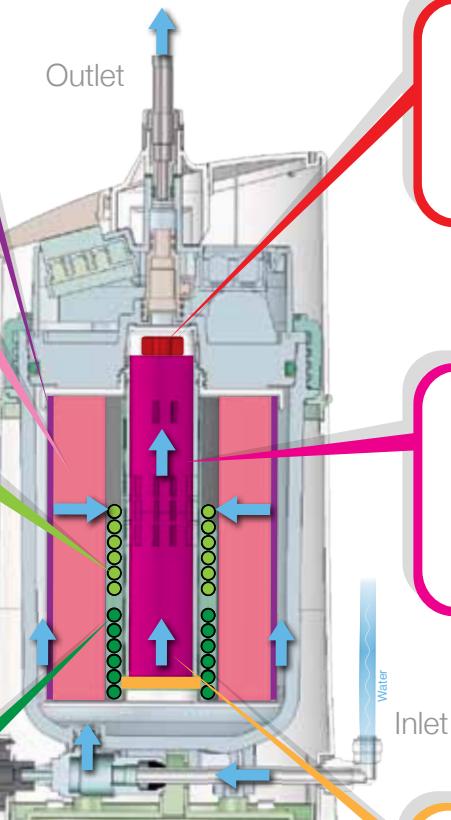

Function: Remove 97% of chlorine, 99% of turbidity, 99% of the total 46 types of VOC (Volatile Organic Compounds), TTHM (Trihalomethane $\leq 0.1 \text{ mg/L}$) and/or the other chemicals in Table 17 of NSF 53 (refer to User Manual); reduces bad taste and odour

4. Pi-water ceramic from Japan

The Pi-water ceramic neutralises the adverse effects of active oxygen, preventing the action of hazardous ions, and controlling the oxidation reduction reaction.

This claim has not been evaluated by NSF International, and is not supported by the NSF Certification of this product/component.

Function: Suppresses oxidation and disintegration

7. Antibacterial Silver-lite stone

Made of inorganic compound materials, the antibacterial Silver-lite stone is effective in preventing bacteria and algae growth due to its Silver ions (Ag^+) that move throughout the filter. Hence, the remaining water in the filter does not become contaminated and bacteria are prevented from re-entering the filter.

Function: Antibacterial; cleans water; prevents algae growth

6. Ultrafiltration hollow fibre membrane

As the size of the smallest bacteria is 0.2 to 0.3 micron (a hair size is around 70-140 micron), the HomePure Ultrafiltration (UF) membrane ensures the reduction of bacteria and microscopic impurities due to its hollow fibre membrane having a pore size ranging from 0.01 to 0.1 micron. However, the UF membrane allows the passing through of beneficial water minerals.

Function: Removes 100% of total coliform and E. Coli; reduces bacteria and microscopic impurities

5. Tourmaline ceramic balls

The tourmaline ceramic balls reduce water clustering and have antibacterial and deodorising qualities that improve water filtration. They help give water a good taste and are a good source of mineral microelements that are beneficial for wellness.

Function: Reduce water clustering; is antibacterial; deodorise, ionise and alkali water

Since 1944, NSF International, The Public Health and Safety Company™, is an independent, non-profit organisation committed in making the world a safer place for consumers by certifying products and writing standards for food, water and consumer goods.

AirPure lets you breathe healthy. Living in an urban society, you are exposed to an alarming range of pollutants which cause serious and long-lasting health problems. To safeguard your family's health, an air purifier is essential. AirPure uses the latest innovative technology to remove 99.9 per cent of particle pollution, giving you clean and safe air.

Stop Taking Your Family's Health for Granted!

The air pollution problem in our cities and homes has reached an alarming level. Day by day, global warming leads to new, stronger, and more dangerous illnesses. Unclean air can cause respiratory problems, infections, bronchitis, pneumonia and viral infections, as well as irritation to the eyes, nose and throat. Other symptoms can include the reoccurrence of headaches, nausea, allergic reactions and serious long-term ailments. Sadly, the ones who suffer most because of unclean air are children. Respiratory problems in children are on the rise. On average, one out of every 10 school-age children has asthma and each year, 10.5 million school days are missed due to asthmatic related issues.

Is Your Home Killing You?

Indoor air quality is a growing concern as modern homes are built to be airtight for energy efficiency through better insulation, weather-stripping, upgraded windows, and high-quality exterior doors. Unfortunately, this causes some dangerous side-effects – indoor air quality suffers as the exchange of indoor and outdoor air is limited. Indoor air pollutants get trapped inside and can build up to harmful levels. Thus, it is important to find a way to clean the air to help filter out as many pollutants as possible.

Some Common Indoor Air Pollutants and Their Sources:

Dust, fibreglass, asbestos, formaldehyde – from building materials.

Toxic vapours, volatile organic compounds (VOCs) – from workplace cleansers, solvents, pesticides, disinfectants, glues. Gases, vapours, odours – off-gas emissions from furniture, carpets, and paints.

Dust mites – from carpets, fabric, foam chair cushions.

Microbial contaminants, fungi, moulds, bacteria – from damp areas, stagnant water and condensate pans.

Ozone – from photocopiers, electric motors, electrostatic air cleaners.

Air Pollution and Its Effects

Breathe Healthy

A good quality air purifier removes harmful particulates such as dust, pollen, mould and bacteria from the air you breathe. Thanks to a unique filtration technology, AirPure provides superior air purification for a healthy and safe environment in your home, office, or any indoor space.

It's time to start paying more attention to the air you breathe in the same way you think about the food you eat. Your family's health is the most valuable thing in the world; make it your top priority.

Why AirPure?

A high-quality air purifier such as those which pass HEPA (High-Efficiency Particulate Arresting) standards and are used in laboratories, medical facilities and aircraft must filter particles of 0.3 micron in size. AirPure effectively removes particles as small as 0.1 micron. After purification with AirPure, air is approximately 99.9% pure.

AirPure is a very simple, unique and user-friendly air purifier. It is also the world's first and only device that combines two advanced and highly-effective purification methods: Water Surface Trapping and Nano-Membrane Technology.

Pre-Purification/Water Surface Trapping

The first-stage of purification system consists of the dual principals of water current and vacuum-creation working together. Air coming from the inlet of AirPure is forced across water surface at a specific angle. Impurities such as dust, smoke, and other pollutant particles are trapped in water. A fan in AirPure directs the air flow towards the water surface and also creates a vacuum effect. This stage can trap pollutants up to 10 microns.

Nano-Membrane

This stage features the most advanced and unique air purification technology. After the air passes through the water surface, it reaches the nanotechnology-enabled organic polymer filter media (ultra-thin substance made up of polyester). This nano-membrane is designed to trap pollutants by mechanical means; its very specific pore size is able to trap all remaining impurities up to 0.1 micron in size. As a result, the air coming from the outlet of AirPure is around 99.9% pure.

- AirPure is efficient; its unique purification technology delivers 99.9% pure air in 2 simple purification steps.
- AirPure does not have any filter, making it both user-friendly and cost-effective – there is no need for constant change of filters!
- AirPure's nano-membrane is partially biodegradable, making it a more environmentally-friendly device.
- AirPure does not use UV light (UV has a proven negative effect on health) and does not emit ozone (also harmful for health).
- AirPure removes any particulate which is bigger than 0.1 micron including:

Airborne bacteria such as Acinetobacter, Bacilli, Flavobacterium and Streptomyces; mould spores, human and pet hair; yeast cells; pollen; tobacco smoke, oil smoke and smoke from synthetic materials; coal dust, grain dust, dust mites, atmospheric dust, tea dust, talcum dust, insecticide dusts; burning wood; paint pigments, smouldering or flaming cooking oil, and liquid droplets.

AirPure Essential Oils

Exclusive essential oils have been developed for use with AirPure. The oils are simply added to the water in the water tank and the healing essential oils' scent is diffused gently throughout the room. Three uniquely formulated AirPure essential oil blends are available for you.

What Causes Ageing Skin?

Everyone wants to look younger than his or her age. However, your skin is abused each day by poor environment and an unhealthy lifestyle.

Do any of the following factors apply to you?

- Living in a big city surrounded by pollution
- Exposure to UV Radiation (e.g. walking along the street, doing outdoor activities, etc.)
- Smoking
- Drinking alcohol
- Lack of sleep
- Lack of exercise
- Suffering from stress

If so, you are unfortunately speeding up your ageing process, which results in fine lines, wrinkles, crow's feet, dark spots, and much more.

Now, it's time to help your skin learn how to fight against ageing!

"Preservatives are used in skin care products to protect ingredients from spoiling. But nowadays we know that some preservatives can be harmful to our health. This is obvious in the case of parabens, which may lead to some kinds of cancer and allergic conditions. So it's essential to include hypoallergenic ingredients in cosmetics to lower the possibility of an allergic or adverse reaction."

– Philippe Humbert, MD, PhD

Using the Concept of Physiology

The human body has the tremendous ability to self-regulate, self-regenerate and self-repair. Physio Radiance relies entirely on a deep understanding of skin physiology. Instead of feeding your skin with short-lived compensation actives that often have devastating long-term effects on the body, Physio Radiance products instead utilise the body's own functions, in order to stimulate the natural rejuvenation of the skin.

Say 'NO' to Toxic Ingredients!

Absolutely paraben- and preservative-free, Physio Radiance is the only high-end, hypoallergenic, unisex skin care range that helps your skin self-regulate, self-regenerate, and self-repair at a cellular level. By utilising the world's smallest antioxidant, its patented technology gives back the original characteristics of youthful skin cells that have been lost due to ageing.

'Hypoallergenic' Skin Care for Sensitive Skin

Does your skin care product contain these ingredients?

- Parabens
- Mineral Oil, Paraffin, and Petrolatum
- Sodium Laureth Sulfate (SLS) or Sodium Lauryl Ether Sulfate (SLES)
- Benzyl Alcohol

These ingredients are part of a list of potentially dangerous chemicals that can be found in most skin care products. These chemicals can cause toxic and allergic reactions such as skin rashes, headaches, dizziness, and/or respiratory problems. In addition, parabens are widely used as preservatives in over 13,200 skin care products. There have been numerous studies that have identified the connection between parabens and cancer.

A number of hypoallergenic skin care products are available in the market to lower the possibility of an allergic or adverse reaction. Regulations list 26 official allergens that all hypoallergenic products sold in the market must not possess, in order to qualify as being hypoallergenic.

However, the hypoallergenic quality of Physio Radiance goes above and beyond this standard list, as it blacklists more than 80 harmful ingredients that are known to be allergens or toxic. When formulating Physio Radiance, our aim is to develop an evolving list of ingredients used in our products to ensure the health and well-being of all our customers, no matter their skin sensitivities.

Replenish^{H⁻}

Ultimate Skin Rejuvenation Formula

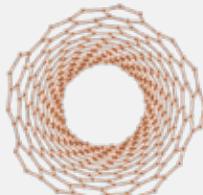

Physio Radiance is exclusively produced and developed by Laboratoires Schwartz, a renowned laboratory in France, with carefully prepared textures that fully respect the physiology of the skin.

Years of extensive Research and Development (R&D) on the natural mechanisms of protection against the premature aging of cells have resulted in a select group of anti-aging, physiologically targeted active ingredients that are contained in Replenish^{H⁻} – an ultimate skin rejuvenation formula contained only in Physio Radiance.

The Key Active Ingredient You Need To Know About!

Negative Hydrogen (H⁻): The Ultimate Skin Antioxidant

Negative hydrogen is known as the smallest antioxidant in the world. Due to its size being much smaller than a nanotube, it can be absorbed and penetrate deep down through multiple skin layers effectively. So how does negative hydrogen benefit your skin?

NANOTUBE (4 nm)

H⁻ (0.053 nm)

Comparison between H⁻ and Nanotube

• Free Radical Scavenger

As a powerful antioxidant, negative hydrogen neutralises harmful free radicals which damage the body's own cells. This can effectively help slow the natural ageing process.

• Cell Energy Booster

Negative hydrogen also acts as an energy booster for your skin cells. It provides the spare electrons to assist in cellular energy production without turning itself into a free radical. The result? Your skin blossoms and performs better.

Some skin care companies claim that they have negative hydrogen in their products. However, all skin care products contain water, and it is a fact that negative hydrogen automatically neutralises itself when in contact with water and thus negates its own effectiveness.

Microencapsulation Technology

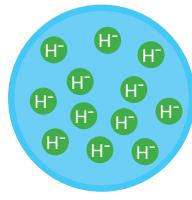

1. The hydrophobic balls containing H⁻ enter the compartment.

2. When the pump is pressed, these hydrophobic balls are crushed.

3. H⁻ is released at the last moment, retaining its own efficacy.

Hydrophobic Ball Containing H⁻

To prevent this contact between water and negative hydrogen, Physio Radiance uses a patented microencapsulation technology that protects the negative hydrogen in small hydrophobic balls. When the pump mechanism – specifically researched for Physio Radiance products – is pressed, these hydrophobic balls are crushed, thus releasing the negative hydrogen at the last moment right before application to the skin. As such, the negative hydrogen is utilised without degradation.

Physio Radiance enhances its efficacy by utilising a state-of-the-art airless bottle to protect the product from temperature changes, oxidation, light exposure and contamination, such as from bacteria, viruses, and fungi.

Other Powerful Anti-Ageing Ingredients...

• Fucoidan: Firmness

Fucoidan is a highly sought-after brown seaweed natural extract. It was discovered during a research study on the exceptionally long-lived inhabitants of Okinawa Island, Japan. Studies indicate that the regular consumption of fucoidan can help strengthen the immune system, prevent disease and extend life span. Rich in nutrients and possessing healing properties, the powerful and natural fucoidan extract contained in Physio Radiance products not only provides the skin with high levels of protection against infection and free radicals, but also helps the skin regain its density and firmness.

• Calcium: Hydration

Not only is calcium good for your bones, but it is also an excellent cell cohesion activator that naturally decreases with age. It plays a vital role in restructuring the skin to intensely comfort and hydrate the skin all day long.

• Aquaxyl: Moisturising

Aquaxyl helps balance all of the skin's natural systems to enhance moisture, increase water reserves, limit water loss and protect the skin from external elements.

• Matrixyl 3000: Elasticity

Matrixyl 3000 is recognised as the best fibroblast activator, and thus enhances collagen and elastin synthesis.

"A Good Line of Skin Care For Everybody"

Leading dermatologist Prof. Philippe Humbert says,

"Our organs, cells and tissues change as we age. The number of cells decreases while the density of collagen and elasticity of the skin progressively lose its functioning capacity. However, it's possible to reactivate the function of the cells, such as the cells in epidermis and fibroblast collagen production, for example. These cells can be reactivated by different active ingredients contained in cosmetics.

"Since Physio Radiance is formulated to reduce the risk of allergies by avoiding preservatives, parabens and other potentially irritative chemicals, while at the same time including active ingredients which can be useful for the skin, I feel that Physio Radiance is a good line of skin care products for everybody."

Professor Philippe Humbert is the Head of the Dermatology Department at Besançon University Hospital Centre, in France. He is also the Director of the Centre's Skin Engineering and Biology Laboratory; and President of the International Society for Biophysics and Imaging of the Skin.

What Our Physio Radiance Users Have to Says:

"I have spent a lot of money on skin care products over the years and always felt very disappointed in them, as they had only temporary positive results. I still had wrinkles and fine lines on my face, particularly around my eyes and lips.

"I came across Physio Radiance during the Physio Radiance Ambassador Training Programme organised in September 2010. I've been using Physio Radiance ever since, and I've noticed that my skin is more radiant. The fine lines on my forehead and the wrinkles over my face are fading. Physio Radiance gives me a more youthful look, all the while keeping my skin soft and healthy looking. This is the best skin care product I have ever used!"

"Thank you Physio Radiance. You are like a time machine that brings back my youthfulness!"

– Punitha Narayanan
Malaysia

"My face used to be so oily in summer and very dry and reddish in winter. However, after using Physio Radiance for a month, I noticed a positive change!

"Since my first application of Physio Radiance, I felt that my skin was softer and smoother than before. During winter, I had to apply moisturiser from other brands on my face at least three to four times a day. But now with Physio Radiance's Radiance Enhancer Day & Night Fluid, I apply it only one time in the morning, and believe it or not, my skin is hydrated all day long – even if I wash my face during the day. My skin is much healthier!"

"What I like most about Physio Radiance is that it is paraben- and preservative-free. It also has the ability to activate our skin cells. Physio Radiance is truly amazing!"

– Elis Rusnawati
Hong Kong

"Even though I'm only in my late 20's, my skin has already developed signs of premature ageing. I tried many different skin care products – even the expensive ones. However, my skin was becoming more sensitive and inflamed.

"After attending QNET's product training, I really like Physio Radiance's concept of self-regulation, self-regeneration and self-repair. So I decided to try the products. Upon application of the Comfort Emulsion Cleanser on my skin, the primary sensation was very comforting. I felt that it cleansed my facial skin thoroughly without making it dry or greasy. The Remineralising Toner Lotion absorbs instantly again, making my skin perfectly balanced. The Extreme Anti-Oxidant Serum and Radiance Enhancer Day & Night Fluid were absorbed quickly and did not make my face greasy or oily like other brands. My skin felt soft and hydrated all day long."

"I love seeing my face in the mirror and feel excited to see the continuing improvements. Even my fiancé loves it and says that I finally found a perfect skin care solution for my skin. Now he has started using it and I notice that he even looks younger."

– Amelia Djajadi

"So far I have introduced Physio Radiance to many people. It is the best anti-ageing secret that offers beautiful and younger-looking skin. It's a secret I want to share with everyone!"

Brille

- Brille Single Pack*
- Brille Duo Pack (2 Packs)*
- Brille Toothbrush-Family Pack (x 4)
- Brille Toothbrush-Family Combo Pack (x 8)

*One pack consists of Brille Natural Whitening, Brille Sensitive Teeth, Brille For Kids and Brille Anticavity.

The Brille System

A complete, all-natural dental solution for your family.

The Brille system is a revolution in family dental health care. For the first time, your family has access to a complete dental health clinic on-hand, right in your bathroom! This completely new concept has been created to ensure that everyone's specific needs are addressed.

Complete Dental Solution

Why should everyone in the family use the same toothpaste when each person has different dental needs?

Some toothpaste makers claim that with just one product they can solve all dental issues, but this is not true. Dentists agree that specialised products are needed for the treatment of sensitive teeth, for fighting cavities, for whitening and for children's teeth.¹ So how do you choose one toothpaste product that will cover the whole family and give them the results that they need? The answer is simple: you don't.

Brille provides a systemised solution for everyone's dental health and protection, allowing you to tailor four separate specialised products to the needs of your family. Your family can also enjoy the confidence of lasting freshness and a deep clean while receiving the care that they need.

Brille Benefits

- Strong cavity protection with Green Tea
- All-natural ingredients
- Long-lasting freshness
- No harmful ingredients
- Fights bacteria
- Strengthens teeth & gums
- Great taste
- Fast-action whitening (Brille Natural Whitening)
- Treatment for sensitivity (Brille Sensitive)

Brille Anticavity gives strong protection from cavities by fighting bacteria that lead to a build-up of cavity-causing plaque.

Brille Natural Whitening will give your teeth a whiter appearance while still fighting tooth decay, gum disease and giving long lasting freshness.

Brille For Kids is formulated to provide gentle protection and care to young teeth and gums and to provide a fresh clean without the harsh taste.

Brille Sensitive Teeth will relieve your teeth's sensitivity including pain caused by hot or cold food and drinks.

Brille is All-Natural

All natural ingredients and free from harmful additives.

When you use Brille, the first thing you will notice is the taste – a unique and original, fresh, organic flavour, then you will discover a long-lasting, clean and pure freshness unlike any product you have ever tried. The secret to Brille's amazingly clean feeling is our specially formulated herbal blend, which includes :

Green Tea

An incredible natural defence against tooth decay, Green Tea has many health benefits and it is a perfect natural substitute for fluoride.

Eucalyptus

A natural source of eucalyptol, found in many mouthwashes and proven to be one of the most effective treatments against gingivitis.

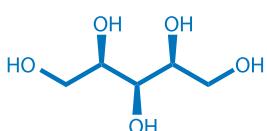

Echinacea

One of nature's best disinfectants and has incredible immune-boosting powers. Echinacea is believed to be unmatched at fighting viruses.

Sage

An effective remedy for gingivitis, reducing inflammation and promoting healing. Another benefit of Sage is its whitening properties.

Xylitol

A naturally occurring sweetener that reduces bacteria and plaque build-up and helps strengthen teeth's enamel.

Free from Harmful Additives

Brille not only provides a smarter, more advanced system of dental care but it does this using only the safest ingredients so that your family is protected from the large number of harmful toxins found in other brands. Some harmful additives commonly found in toothpaste but not found in Brille include:

Triclosan, SLS-SLES (Sodium Lauryl Sulfate), Food dye, Fluoride

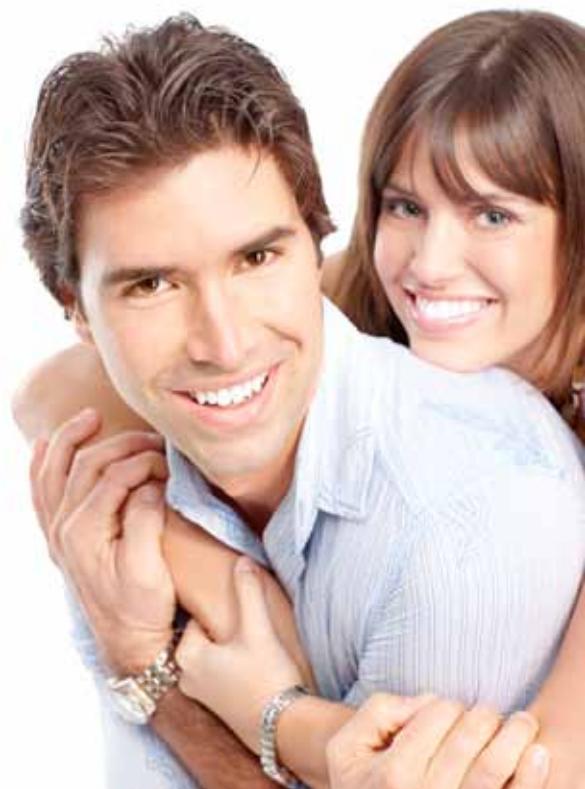

Fluoride is being increasingly recognised as a highly-poisonous and unnecessary additive which causes dental fluorosis, depresses thyroid activity (leading to serious thyroid problems), premature ageing of the body, joint and bone weakening and even bone cancer. Green Tea, on the other hand, is a perfect healthy alternative for preventing and fighting cavities.

Why No Foam?

When using Brille, you may notice that it doesn't foam in your mouth the same way that some other brands do. This is because almost all major brands use a chemical called Sodium Lauryl Sulphate (SLS or SLES), a strong and harsh detergent used in the industry as a degreaser and a powerful wetting and foaming agent. This is the same chemical which is used to clean your car's engine! As you can imagine the effects on your body can be quite serious, ranging from skin irritation and burns, to cancer.

So if you're wondering why Brille feels different, it's because you're getting a healthier clean – all of the protection and freshness with none of the harmful chemicals.

Now, doesn't that feel better?

The Right Toothbrush for You

The secret to good dental health is routine. Brushing at least twice daily will ensure strong healthy teeth. Do you know what? We are much more likely to stick to this routine if we are using a toothbrush which is comfortable and leaves our mouth feeling thoroughly clean.

For use with the Brille toothpaste range, THREE advanced toothbrush designs have been specially developed to provide a deep clean and a comfortable and satisfying brushing experience.

Brille Adult Brush:
Superior clean and advanced whitening cleaner.

Brille Travel Brush:
A fold-up design specifically created to provide the best care while you're on the go.

Brille Kids Brush:
Brille Kids Brush's fun lion design makes brushing enjoyable and is created especially for small teeth and mouths.

Use Brille toothbrushes with Brille toothpaste for a complete dental care solution.

* Brille is only available in Turkey.

- Argancare for Men
- Argancare for Women

Pamper Yourself with Liquid Gold

Take yourself and your family into a world of beauty and all-round wellness; release your inner glow with Argancare.

From the kernels of the Argan nut, this rare oil has often been referred to as the 'Liquid Gold' of Morocco. With today's modern technology, mechanical extraction methods are used to produce this barely resourced oil.

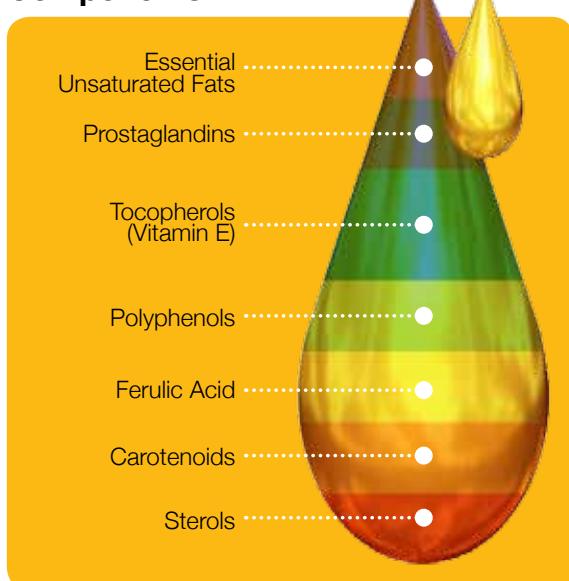

Argan Care

A Touch of Gold in a Modern World

The Argan tree (Argania spinosa), commonly known as the 'Tree of Life', is found sparsely amidst the Berber villages of rustic Southern Morocco. Due to living in harsh weather conditions, the Berbers embrace the earth's natural remedies to maintain their forever ageless and fresh appearance. Lacking any synthetic ingredients that can cause irritation, Argan oil has one of the richest sources of naturally occurring Vitamin E. Vitamin E is a powerful antioxidant that fights and neutralises damage caused by destructive free radicals in our environment. Thus upon application of the oil, the skin is able to revive and restore its firmness and youth, the core anti-ageing essence of the Berbers secret behind their exquisite healthful glow.

Argan Oil's Cosmetic Components

Argancare & Healing and Protection of Skin

- It is an effective treatment for skin inflammatory conditions experienced during childhood, adolescence or adulthood such as Acne, Chickenpox and Psoriasis as it reduces red dots or patchy blotches.
- Argancare is suitable for naturally dry and oily skin types. Its amazing abilities to self-regulate the secretion of sebum out of the skin's sebaceous glands keeps the skin wet and protected from dryness, whilst making sure secretions are kept to manageable levels to avoid excess oiliness.
- The oil is rapidly absorbed by the skin, therefore is non-sticky and does not leave the skin feeling oily.

Argancare & Anti-Ageing of Skin

Argan oil, extracted from the raw kernels of the Argan nuts whose protective case preserves nutrients very well, is a strong contender for regeneration of tired and aged skin.

- 80 per cent unsaturated fatty acid content is a wonderful aide to retain essential moisture preventing signs of inflammation caused by the degeneration of skin cells.
- Saponin content acts in minimising and reducing wrinkles, 'crow's feet' (wrinkles that appear at the corners of the eyes) and 'bags' under the eyes.
- Argancare has one of the highest naturally occurring tocopherols compositions, commonly known as Vitamin E. Vitamin E is a powerful antioxidant agent that fights and neutralises free radical damage caused by varying factors including pollution, harmful rays of the sun, atmospheric chemical exposure, and damage caused by skin products that contain free-radical procuring chemicals, i.e. certain aerosols and sprays.

Argancare & Hair Care

- Argancare has a high antioxidant content that allows strengthening of hair from root to tip for any age group.
- Possessing a very rich content of Vitamin E (tocopherol), it does wonders to restore and repair hair damage caused by destructive agents such as heat, over-styling, colouring treatments and oxidation.
- Its rich composition of unsaturated fatty acids like Omega 3 and Omega 9 provide hair with additional nutrients to strengthen the protein-bond structures in the root pores and hair strands, boosting overall strength and healing split ends.
- Its high diffusibility infuses deep into the hair follicles promoting shine and lustre and giving your hair a silky feel, whilst reducing frizziness.
- It can be used as an aide to reduce dandruff.
- Its richness and density can give a 'wet-look' to hair to complete your desired look.

Suggested Applications

For Face and Body

- Use as your daily facial cream for wrinkles, scar tissue, visibly irritated skin and stretch marks. Apply 3-4 drops daily to your skin in the morning and at night and massage gently until absorbed.
- Use Argancare as your daily moisturiser after a bath or shower. Rub small amounts in your palms and massage your body using upward strokes.
- Suitable for all skin types including dry, oily and sensitive skin.

For Hair

- Styling after shampoo and conditioning: Apply 4-5 drops of Argancare and work through damp hair. Style as usual.
- Frizz control and protection: Apply 2-3 drops of Argancare to dry hair from root to tip, as often as needed.
- Enhancing hair colouring: Before colouring, apply 1 teaspoon (5 ml) of Argancare directly to hair, gently massage through each strand to enhance overall ability of colour absorption. Add another teaspoon (5 ml) of Argancare to the colour mix and continue colouring as usual process (You do not need to rinse hair before applying the colour mix). This process will improve the shine, softness and depth of colour.
- Reviving, hydrating and detangling: Apply a few drops to hair, wigs and hair extensions.

For Children and Infants

- Apply 3-4 drops of Argancare to hair and body and massage gently before and after baths.
- Use Argancare during weekly massages for infants to soothe and relax the skin.

Argancare is safe for the whole family and all ages.

Argancare is safe to use during pregnancy.

Argancare has a shelf life of 24 months.

Results are visible in 3 to 4 weeks.

• Saint Petersburg Research Institute of Physical Culture, Russia

The Ministry of Sport, Tourism and Youth Policy of the Russian Federation

The Saint Petersburg Research Institute of Physical Culture was founded in 1933, making it the oldest sports research institution in Russia. The Institute and its researchers are well known in both Russia and abroad for their cooperation and collaboration with many international sport organisations and for taking part in international scientific conferences and seminars.

For more than seven decades, the advanced investigations of Institute researchers have been involved in helping Soviet and Russian athletes secure 54 Olympic gold medals, 400 European Championships, and 200 World Championships.

Increased Physical Performance; Accelerated Recovery after Physical Performance

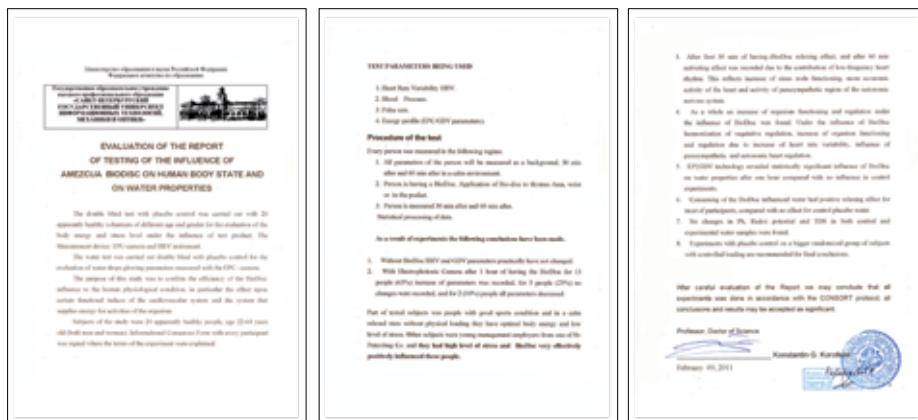

The purpose of the study conducted by the Institute was to confirm the efficiency of carrying the Veloci-Ti pendants near the neck area, in particular the effect upon certain functional indices of the cardiovascular system and the system that supplies energy to the body for activities. Highly skilled sportspeople were used as participants in the study.

After a measured period of intense physical loading and activity, various bodily systems and functions were measured in the athletes, such as heart rate variability (HRV), blood pressure, pulse rate, velocity of muscle reactions, body tissue conductivity, and energy profiles (EPC/GDV parameters).

Based on the test results, Veloci-Ti pendants increase the adaptation abilities of the human body, preparing the body better for the physical challenges met by sportspeople, improving energy levels, endurance and general physical performance. After the tested participating athletes had worn the Veloci-Ti pendants for 24 hours, the pendants were found to have increased the overall capability of the body and helped accelerate recovery after physical activity.

Decreased Energy Imbalances in the Human Body; Positive Effect over Water

The purpose of the study conducted by the University was to confirm the efficiency of the Amezcu Bio Disc's influence to the human physiological condition, in particular the effect upon certain functional indices of the cardiovascular system and the system that supplies human energy for activities of the organism. Based on the test results, the Amezcu Bio Disc helped decrease the energy imbalances and harmonised the adaptation resources of the human body, as well as having a positive effect over water.

• Electrochemical Quality Consulting Corporation (EQC), Germany

The Electrochemical Quality Consulting Corporation (EQC) is a laboratory specialising in electrochemical measurements on food, soil and compost. Recently and notably, the company obtained results about the immediate connection between redox potential in the soil and the redox potential of the products grown on that ground. All these measurements are an indication that the quality of foods and beverages can be verified by means of redox potentials.

The redox value shows the relation between oxidation and reduction, which explains how many electrons are taken up, and conversely, released. Foods and beverages that have a lower redox value will have a higher quality helping improve the body's inherent order, and will provide more electrons to neutralise free radicals. Moreover, the lower redox value shows the lowering oxidation potential of food and drinks, which helps increase the shelf life of your groceries and boosts the taste of your foods and beverages.

Positive Effect on Beverages

The measurements taken by EQC show that a reduction of the redox value within the Amezcu DRINK was visible, which is considered to be thermodynamically positive.

Positive Effect on Food

Test results conducted by EQC also show that the Amezcu EAT can lower redox value, which is considered to be thermodynamically positive.

• Institute of Electrophotonic, Germany

The Institute of Electrophotonic, the European centre of EPC (GDV) – Technology, is engaged in the activity and the further development of the measuring method of Electro Photonic Captor (EPC)/Gas Discharge Visualization (GDV). Positive Influence over the Human Body and Water

Tests run by the EPC (GDV) camera and the EPC (GDV) – Fifth Element included placebo comparisons to take measurements of water and the human body state. Test results of the Amezcu Bio Discs show that the product has an energetic and positive regulating and harmonising influence on the human body and water. Also, Amezcu Chi Pendant is affirmative to positive energy influences on the human body and water, and is suitable for daily use.

The measurements conducted with the EPC (GDV) – Camera and the EPC (GDV) – Fifth Element show that Veloci-Ti pendants have an energetic influence on water and a positive energetic regulating influence on the human body.

Positive Influence over the Human Body and Water; Harmonise Energy Level of the Human Body

The measurements of the human body state were conducted in a placebo controlled environment and in a double blinded test with the EPC (GDV) camera and the EPC (GDV) – Fifth Element. Tests revealed that the Himalayan Crystal Tri Angle Pendant has an energetic influence on water and an affirmatively regulating influence on the human body. Further test results of the Himalayan World Pendant, Himalayan Pendulum Pendant and Himalayan Crystal Love Collection indicated that the products have a positively energetic regulating and harmonising influence on the human body.

The Centre for Biofield Sciences (CBS) promotes a sustainable preventative healthcare model, where naturopathic information medicine is selected as a preferred approach to health care. The Centre focusses on bio-energetic research and its scientists and doctors research and train in technologies and techniques designed to rebalance the disharmony that can lead to physical and mental disease. The Centre utilises modern holistic technologies, such as Polycontrast Interference Photography (PIP), the Electro-Scanning Method (ESM), Bio-Energetic Stress Testing (BEST), Gas Discharge Visualization (GDV), and Resonant Field Imaging (RFI); all enabling the integrated therapist to find the root cause of disease and therefore administer the most precise treatment necessary.

Positive Effect on the Human Body; Balances Chakras and Energy Centres in the Human Body

Tests were carried out to determine the effect of the Amezcu Bio Disc and Amezcu Chi Pendant over the human body, and the efficacy of the products in balancing energy centres. The tests were double-blind, and placebo control groups were utilised. The tests revealed that both products are very effective methods of energising and balancing the human biofield, decreasing energy imbalances, and redistributing pooled energy.

It was also noted that during experiments with the Amezcu Chi Pendant, the changes witnessed were particularly fast and positive. Further, test results of the Amezcu Bio Disc indicated that the product has a 'profound positive effect on individuals at an energy level'.

Balanced Energy Dynamics of the Human Body; Increased Physical Performance and Energy Levels

The test results show the positive effects of Veloci-Ti pendants that indicate the increase in energy equilibrium and body balance. From this research, the Centre for Biofield Sciences conclude that the Veloci-Ti pendants are an effective means of balancing the energy dynamics of the human body as well as increasing daily physical performance and energy levels.

Tests were carried out to determine the effect of the Himalayan Crystal Collection™ over the human body, and the efficacy of the products in balancing energy centres. The tests indicated that the Himalayan Crystal Collection™ helps in conducting, increasing, balancing, and transferring energy to the user. From the test results, we can conclude that the Himalayan Crystal Collection™ is a very effective mode of balancing the chakras or the energy centres as well as the biofield.

Increased Energy and Harmony Levels in the Human Body; Decreased Stress Levels in the Human Body

A preliminary observational study indicated that when wearing the Amezcua Chi Pendant or drinking water treated with the Amezcua Bio Disc, users experienced reduced sympathetic activity of the nervous system, thereby reducing tension, increasing reserves of stress adaptation capabilities, increasing parasympathetic activity, and increasing energetic reserves. The test also showed a harmonising effect in cooperative relation between sympathetic and parasympathetic parts of the autonomic nervous system, thus improving regulatory and adaptation mechanisms. Dr Kucera also showed that after one week of not using the Amezcua Disc or the Amezcua Chi Pendant, the benefits to the users' cardiovascular function, regulatory systems and stress levels fell back to near default values.

Individuals involved in the tests manifested reduced symptoms, including better sleep, reduced tension, improved psycho-emotional disorders, and increased energy activities.

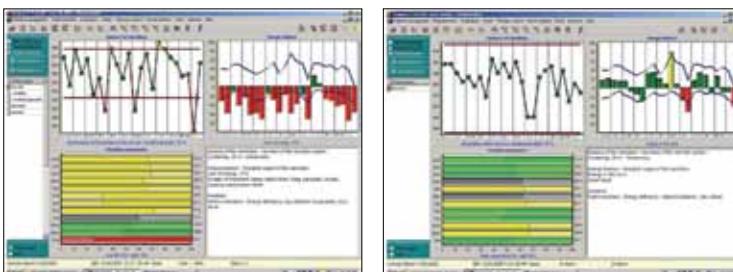

• PROGNOS™, MedPrevent GmbH & Co, Germany

PROGNOS™ is a diagnostic and therapy system based on traditional medicine that uses a painless method to create a picture of the energetic state of the body. This is measured through the subject's meridian system, which is the energy course of the human body. PROGNOS™ and its manufacturer, MedPrevent, have been accredited with EC and ISO certifications by the EUROCAT Institute for Certification and Testing.

Positive Energy Field

PROGNOS™ machine tests show that the Amezcua Bio Disc, the Amezcua Chi Pendant and the Amezcua Energy Shell all possess a positive energy field. Test results also showed that after drinking water treated with these products or when wearing the Amezcua Chi Pendant, the user's energy levels were increased and the disharmony of their meridian system was thereby reduced.

Example of the Amezcua Bio Disc PROGNOS™ test results:

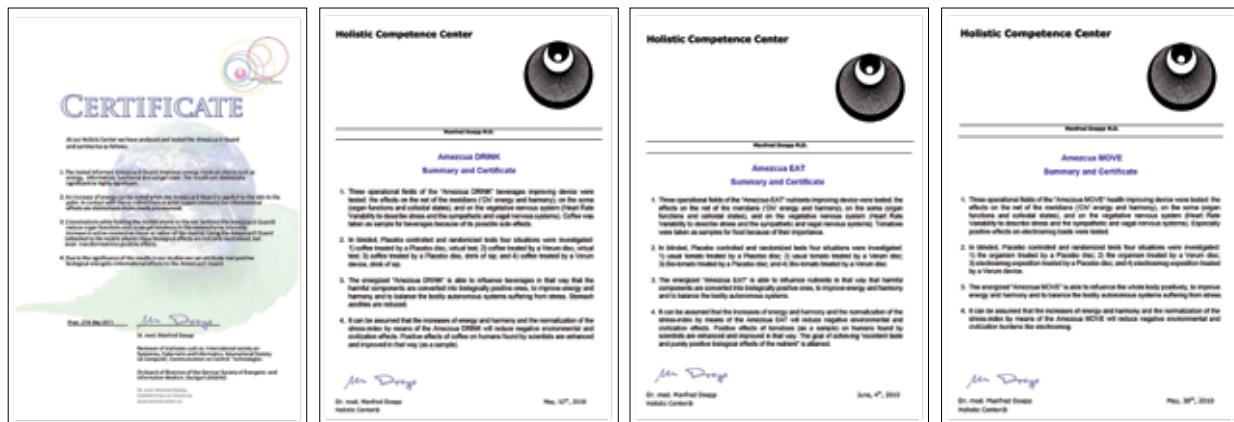

Before

After

The user's energy levels were increased and the disharmony of their meridian system was thereby reduced from 48% to 34%.

• Dr med. Manfred Doepp, Germany

Summary and Certificate

Three operational fields of the "Veloci-Ti Pendant" were tested: the effects on the set of the meridians ("Chi" energy and harmony), on the water (organ function and sol-gel state), and on the aqueous humour system (meridian diagnostics). The results show that the pendant is able to improve energy and harmony and to balance the bodily autonomous systems suffering from stress.

The "Veloci-Ti Pendant" is able to improve energy and harmony and to balance the bodily autonomous systems suffering from stress. It can be assumed that the increase of energy and harmony and the harmonisation of the dimensions will reduce negative effects produced by thermal stress on the organism. Wearing an energised "Veloci-Ti Pendant" enables a more active life-style without producing new stress.

Dr. med. Manfred Doepp is a member of the Board of the German Society for Energy and Information Medicine e.V., Stuttgart. He is also a reviewer of the International Society on Systemics, Cybernetics and Informatics, as well as the International Society of Computer, Communication and Control Technologies.

Improved Energy Medical Criteria; Reduced Impact of Perturbing Technical Radiation

The Amezcuia E-Guard has been scientifically tested using meridian diagnostics and segmentary diagnostics to assess the bio-energetic, bio-informational, bio-functional and bio-colloidal effects. A positive result was significantly and reproducibly demonstrated, noting that the Amezcuia E-Guard helps improve energy medical criteria such as energy, information, functional and sol-gel state and reduces the impact of perturbing technical radiation on the organism.

Increased Energy Levels in Water and the Human Body

The effects of the Amezcuia Bio Discs, the Amezcuia Energy Shell, and the Amezcuia DRINK on the quality of water and the bioenergetic state of the human body were tested by Dr med. Manfred Doepp at the Holistic Center in Germany, using meridian diagnostics.

The test results showed that the Amezcuia Bio Discs, the Amezcuia Energy Shell, and the Amezcuia DRINK all have successful operational areas in the energetic-informational treatment of liquids and water containing nutrients. Water treated with the Amezcuia Bio Discs, the Amezcuia Energy Shell, and the Amezcuia DRINK also has an increased level of energy and harmony.

Protection Against E-smog

Electrosmog is a negative effect of electromagnetic fields created by electronic equipment in our environment such as mobile phones, computers, lightings, air-conditioners and other electrical appliances. The meridian diagnostics test shows that the Amezcuia Chi Pendant, the Amezcuia E-Guard and the Amezcuia MOVE is able to neutralise the negative effects of electrosmog, as well as improve and harmonise the energy levels of the user.

Positive Energy Field

The tests conducted by Dr Doepp show that the Amezcuia Bio Discs, Amezcuia Chi Pendant, Amezcuia Energy Shell, Amezcuia E-Guard and Amezcuia Lifestyle Set all possess a positive energy field. Test results also reveal that when the Amezcuia Bio Discs, Amezcuia Chi Pendant and Amezcuia MOVE are held, the holder's energy and harmony levels show a significant increase. PROGNOS™ machine tests show that Veloci-Ti pendants are able to improve energy and harmony while also balancing the bodily autonomous systems suffering from stress. The test results have shown that the energy and harmony effects of Veloci-Ti pendants compile a 'total balance'.

Improved Harmony Levels

The effects of Veloci-Ti pendants on the bioenergetic state of the human body were tested by the automatic electronic diagnostic device Amsat-HC™. The results of these tests indicate an improvement in users' harmony levels after wearing a Veloci-Ti performance pendant.

Improved Stress Index

The measurements conducted by the KardiVar™ device show that Veloci-Ti pendants can improve the stress index of the wearer's body and also enable increased agility without creating any new stress.

Positive Effect on Beverages

Based on the test results conducted, the Amezcu DRINK helps improve energy and harmony, while also balancing the bodily autonomous systems that are suffering from stress.

Positive Effect on Food

The energy tests show that the Amezcu EAT is able to influence nutrients found in food to improve energy and harmony, while also balancing the bodily autonomous systems that are suffering from stress.

Positive Influence over the Human Body

Conducted tests on the Himalayan Crystal Collection™ revealed that the energy content of the collection is ‘very good’. For example, upon wearing the Himalayan Crystal Love Pendant, the wearers experienced an average of 21% increase in their total energy and harmony balance. Similar results were reflected when other pieces within the Himalayan Crystal Collection™ were worn during the test

Optimise and Restore the Body's Energy Equilibrium

The test results showed that the crystals used in the Himalayan Crystal Collection™ are able to optimise and restore the body's energy equilibrium. The Himalayan Crystal Collection™ also has a positive effect on the energy and harmony levels within the human body.

Water Surface Tension Value

Results show that after treatment by the Amezcu Bio Disc and the Amezcu Energy Shell; the water surface tension value moved closer to that of pure water. The change in surface tension value renders the water more bioavailable, thus improving the compatibility of water molecules with the body's cells. It also means that treated water carries detergent thoroughly into materials, again due to its surface tension value being close to that of pure water. This means a more efficient and effective washing of your laundry or dishes, allowing you to reduce the amount of detergent used. With less detergent used, wastewater discharged from the washing machine is more environmentally friendly.

Water treated with the Amezcu Bio Disc

The I.H.M. Institute in Japan was founded by Dr Masaru Emoto, a Doctor of Alternative Medicine. Dr Emoto achieved international acclaim through his extensive research of water around the world. He is also the President Emeritus of the International Water for Life Foundation.

Energy Levels in Water

Research has revealed a correlation between the formation of water crystals and the quality of water, in terms of the degree of pollution. In recent I.H.M. Institute research, it became clear that energy could affect the formation of water crystals. Thus, water crystal formation reflects not only physical but also informational or energetic aspects of water. Water samples with a good balance of minerals and energy tend to produce beautifully formed crystals.

A water crystal experiment conducted at the Institute showed that water treated with the Amezcu Bio Disc produced beautiful and good water crystals, compared to normal distilled water. The treated water was found to have less 'depressed' water crystals.
